16TH YEAR. NO. 156.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1900.

TWO CENTS

TOO MUCH SMOKE IS A NUISANCE

Board of Education Passed a Resolution Last Night and Instructed the Solicitor

TO TAKE NECESSARY STEPS

To Compel the Owners of a Small Pottery Near the Central Building

TO ABATE NUISANCE AT ONCE

The board of education met in regular session in the directors' room, Central building, last evening, with President Vodrey, Clerk Hill and Members Taggart and Murphy present.

Dr. Taggart opened the meeting by reading a scripture lesson and offering a short prayer, after which the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

A matter which has been much discussed not only by the board of education, but by the public generally, was brought before the meeting by Clerk Hill in the form of a resolution and is as follows:

"Whereas, The small pottery situated upon the south part of lot No. 19, in the city of East Liverpool, by noxious, noisome, offensive exhalations of smoke and gas from its kiln and heater stack is injurious to the health and comfort of the pupils and teachers in the public school building, located on Fourth street in said city, and has caused and is causing irreparable damage to said public school building; therefore be it

"Resolved, By the board of education of the city of East Liverpool, that the smoke and gases emitted by the kiln and boiler stack of the pottery on the south of lot No. 19, in the city of East Liverpool, is a nuisance and should be abated, and the city solicitor, ex-officio attorney for the board of education of East Liverpool, is hereby instructed to institute whatever legal proceedings may be necessary to abate such nuisance."

Mr. Hill moved the adoption of the resolution and the roll call showed all present to be in favor of its passage.

Superintendent Rayman reported the removal of Miss Gladden from the Pleasant Heights building to a position at the Helana building, East End. To fill the vacancy Prof. Rayman suggested the name of Miss Pearl Grafton, a last year's graduate, who has been a substitute teacher since the beginning of the present term.

Some discussion took place as to the wages this teacher should receive, and it was finally decided to pay $35 per month, since the young lady would be required to pay her passage to and from the Pleasant Heights school.

The superintendent explained his motive for ordering the East End school closed on Monday, and after some little discussion the matter was left in his hands. The superintendent will order a resumption in that part of the city as soon as he may deem it proper.

Only one bid was received for the furnishing of hose for the Helana building, that of the Eagle Hardware company. It was thought by the board that their bid, $54 74, for 250 feet of hose was as cheap as it could be purchased anywhere, and it was decided to accept their proposition. This firm will also furnish two fire extinguishers for use at the Helana building. One will be placed on each of the two floors of the building.

Clerk Hill then read the following bills, which were ordered paid:

Robert Hall, labor.....	$14 33
Robert Hall, coal.....	20 10
Watson & Sloan, supplies.....	60
Mrs. Finley Cooley, labor.....	9 00
Ft. Pitt Gas Co., gas.....	84 75
D. Appleton & Co., books.....	6 00
Adams Express Co., express- age	1 50
J. T. Smith Lumber Co., cement	1 20
Pennsylvania Co., freight	5 10
W. H. Adams, supplies	3 00
T. A. Nagle, plumbing	1 76
Star Bargain, supplies	2 40
Kinsey Plumbing Co., plumb- ing	163 73

G. R. Pattison, clocks	77 00
H. R. Hill, rent	24 00
J. N. George, labor	37 00
Eagle Hardware Co.....	25 37

After the meeting had adjourned the members retired to the laboratory at the invitation of Prof. Rayman to view the new Croal apparatus for physical experiments recently purchased, and all pronounced it a valuable acquisition to that department of educational work.

DAM IS NEEDED.

EAST LIVERPOOL CITIZENS WANT
DAM NO. 8 BUILT.

Telegrams Were Sent to Hon. B. B. Dovenor to Ask Him to Use His Influence.

The citizens of East Liverpool want dam No. 8 built in the Ohio and they want it bad, and they will leave no stone unturned until the dam graces the river at Walker's.

Every person in the city is interested and now that Congressman J. J. Gill has taken such an active interest in the improving of the Ohio the citizens here feel that much can be accomplished with the strong support the movement will be given by Hon. R. W. Tayler, who will look after the interests of this city and will no doubt have Gill as a co-worker.

Congressman B. B. Dovenor, of West Virginia, is another man that is interested in the improving of the Ohio, and today some 30 or 40 telegrams were sent him. A copy of one of the telegrams is given. They were all along the same line and express very forcibly the interest the people here in having the dam built as soon as possible.

The copy of the telegram is as follows:

"East Liverpool, Dec. 11.
"Hon. B. B. Dovenor, M. C., Washington, D. C.

"Our loss by the low water every year cannot be calculated, this year lasting six months. THERE HAS BEEN TROUBLE

Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes Took
His Sister From the Chell
Union Workhouse.

HE WILL TAKE HER TO ENGLAND

Mrs. Vincent, with whom little Frances Hewitt has been staying since she left Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes, has at last succeeded in getting some trace of the little girl's relatives and has received a letter from Joseph Hewitt, a brother of the girl.

The letter is as follows:
"Nov 29, 1900.
"From Joseph Hewitt, No. 9 Mayo street, Stoke-on-Trent, Staffordshire, England.

"Dear Madam—Just a few lines to you about my sister, Fanny Hewitt, who was taken from Chell Union Workhouse by Mrs. Barnes two years and six months ago. As near as I can tell, I only saw her twice while then I had lost all trace of her until she was with Mrs. Barnes and since we had a letter from Fanny. The letter was sent to her brother George at Cobridge. We wrote several letters to her after that, but never received an answer. We then forwarded Fanny's address to my sister Sarah at Manchester, who wrote to her with the result that you got the letter and sent a reply to my sister, Sarah Hewitt, now Mrs. Anderson.

"The letter you sent to her was forwarded to me on the 28th day of November. If you know where Mrs. Barnes is you can tell her she can thank her lucky stars she was not in England when she was ill-treating her or I should have got her 12 months' imprisonment. Should Mrs. Barnes return to England she will be prosecuted by the Burslem board of guardians for neglecting Fanny. I am very glad you put in a complaint about it, and I can hardly find words to thank you for your kindness to Fanny.

"Fanny Hewitt was born at Burslem on the 8th day of March, 1888, in the county of Staffordshire. Her father's name was Joseph Hewitt and her mother's maiden name was Fanny Wood. Her mother and father were married at Leeds church in Yorkshire. Fanny's mother's brothers all live in Manchester. She used to live with her Uncle Jack before she went to the workhouse. Fanny's mother died on the 8th day of April, 1893, and her father died on the 22d day of February, 1894. Fanny was living with her Uncle Jack at the same time and her Aunt Lizzie brought her to the funeral. Twelve months afterward she was put in a home at Manchester with her brother George and was sent from there to the Chell workhouse, where she remained until she was fetched out by Mrs. Barnes. Her brother George was fetched out of the workhouse six months before Fanny by a man named Garner, and is still with him.

"I can fully prove to you that Mrs. Anderson is Fanny's sister, and if you do not believe me you can write to 'Relieving Officer, Wolstanton, and Burslem Guardians' office, Burslem, Staffordshire, England.'

"They will tell you all the particulars, as they were responsible for her when she was in England. It is no use writing to the mayor, as he has nothing to do with it. You must write to the address I have put down for you. When you have proved that we are her brothers and sisters I will find some means to have her brought to England. It is rather hard, you know, to take her from you, but it is harder for us, because we have only seen her twice for nearly eight years.

"Fanny's brothers and sisters names are: George Hewitt, aged 15 years; Joseph Hewitt, aged 17 years; Mrs. Sarah Anderson, aged 21 years. "I must conclude with love for your kindness to her and I thank you very much, and I am sure the others will do the same.

"I remain yours very truly, Fanny Hewitt's eldest brother,

"JOSEPH HEWITT."

The letter closes with a "note for Fanny," which is as follows:

"My Dear Sister—Just a few lines to you to say that I am very pleased that we have found where you are, as we have inquired all over for you for nearly 12 months. I am very glad some one has taken you, but Sarah wants you to live with her, as she has not seen you for four years. I send my best love to you and I am glad you have left Mrs. Barnes. You will receive a letter from Sarah and George in a few days. I have no more to say, from your brother Joe. If you have got to be fetched I will try and fetch you. Good night and God bless you, with love for all."

The mention of the Chell Union Workhouse will be better understood when it is known that it is the same as an infirmary in this country.

Lisbon, Dec. 11.—(Special.)—The infirmary directors are contemplating drilling for gas on the infirmary farm near the boiler house. The infirmary is within two miles of the Fink farm, where a good gas vein was found some weeks ago.

The directors claim that it costs the county from $1,200 to $1,500 per year for light and fuel, and that if they could get enough gas to supply it the county could save $1,000 per year.

In case this deal drops through the directors may put in an electrical plant that will both heat and furnish light.

A LETTER FROM JOSEPH HEWITT

It Clears Up the Mystery In Regard to the Child Over Which

THERE HAS BEEN TROUBLE

Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes Took
His Sister From the Chell
Union Workhouse.

HE WILL TAKE HER TO ENGLAND

Mrs. Vincent, with whom little Frances Hewitt has been staying since she left Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes, has at last succeeded in getting some trace of the little girl's relatives and has received a letter from Joseph Hewitt, a brother of the girl.

The letter is as follows:

"Nov 29, 1900.

"From Joseph Hewitt, No. 9 Mayo street, Stoke-on-Trent, Staffordshire, England.

"Dear Madam—Just a few lines to you about my sister, Fanny Hewitt, who was taken from Chell Union Workhouse by Mrs. Barnes two years and six months ago. As near as I can tell, I only saw her twice while then I had lost all trace of her until

she was with Mrs. Barnes and since we had a letter from Fanny. The letter was sent to her brother George at Cobridge. We wrote several letters to her after that, but never received an answer. We then forwarded Fanny's address to my sister Sarah at Manchester, who wrote to her with the result that you got the letter and sent a reply to my sister, Sarah Hewitt, now Mrs. Anderson.

"The letter you sent to her was forwarded to me on the 28th day of November. If you know where Mrs. Barnes is you can tell her she can thank her lucky stars she was not in England when she was ill-treating her or I should have got her 12 months' imprisonment. Should Mrs. Barnes return to England she will be prosecuted by the Burslem board of guardians for neglecting Fanny. I am very glad you put in a complaint about it, and I can hardly find words to thank you for your kindness to Fanny.

"Fanny Hewitt was born at Burslem on the 8th day of March, 1888, in the county of Staffordshire. Her father's name was Joseph Hewitt and her mother's maiden name was Fanny Wood. Her mother and father were married at Leeds church in Yorkshire. Fanny's mother's brothers all live in Manchester. She used to live with her Uncle Jack before she went to the workhouse. Fanny's mother died on the 8th day of April, 1893, and her father died on the 22d day of February, 1894. Fanny was living with her Uncle Jack at the same time and her Aunt Lizzie brought her to the funeral. Twelve months afterward she was put in a home at Manchester with her brother George and was sent from there to the Chell workhouse, where she remained until she was fetched out by Mrs. Barnes. Her brother George was fetched out of the workhouse six months before Fanny by a man named Garner, and is still with him.

"I can fully prove to you that Mrs. Anderson is Fanny's sister, and if you do not believe me you can write to 'Relieving Officer, Wolstanton, and Burslem Guardians' office, Burslem, Staffordshire, England.'

"They will tell you all the particulars, as they were responsible for her when she was in England. It is no use writing to the mayor, as he has nothing to do with it. You must write to the address I have put down for you. When you have proved that we are her brothers and sisters I will find some means to have her brought to England. It is rather hard, you know, to take her from you, but it is harder for us, because we have only seen her twice for nearly eight years.

"Fanny's brothers and sisters names are: George Hewitt, aged 15 years; Joseph Hewitt, aged 17 years; Mrs. Sarah Anderson, aged 21 years.

"I must conclude with love for your kindness to her and I thank you very much, and I am sure the others will do the same.

"I remain yours very truly, Fanny Hewitt's eldest brother,

"JOSEPH HEWITT."

The letter closes with a "note for Fanny," which is as follows:

"My Dear Sister—Just a few lines to you to say that I am very pleased that we have found where you are, as we have inquired all over for you for nearly 12 months. I am very glad some one has taken you, but Sarah wants you to live with her, as she has not seen you for four years. I send my best love to you and I am glad you have left Mrs. Barnes. You will receive a letter from Sarah and George in a few days. I have no more to say, from your brother Joe. If you have got to be fetched I will try and fetch you. Good night and God bless you, with love for all."

The mention of the Chell Union Workhouse will be better understood when it is known that it is the same as an infirmary in this country.

Infirmary Directors Are Contemplat-

County Farm.

Lisbon, Dec. 11.—(Special.)—The infirmary directors are contemplating drilling for gas on the infirmary farm near the boiler house. The infirmary is within two miles of the Fink farm, where a good gas vein was found some weeks ago.

The directors claim that it costs the county from $1,200 to $1,500 per year for light and fuel, and that if they could get enough gas to supply it the county could save $1,000 per year.

In case this deal drops through the directors may put in an electrical plant that will both heat and furnish light.

Cleveland is the Battleground of the Big Telephone War.

The Two Men of the Head of the Rival Systems in This City, Judge J. M. Thomas and Charles J. Glidden, Have Had Interesting Careers.

Cleveland Leader.

Cleveland is being made the battleground for one of the most interesting skirmishes of the great telephone war that is being waged all over the country. The battle is between the Bell and the non-Bell, or independent telephone companies. Cleveland is one of the largest cities in which the rivals have come into contact with each other.

The generals on both sides of the local fight are interesting men, and, although neither of them is a Cleveland, both are well known here, for they come to this city often to watch and direct the progress of the battle. Both are men whose careers have been interesting and both are among the most prominent figures in the national telephone war, of which the Cleveland skirmish is but a part.

Charles J. Glidden is older in the telephone business, having been one of its pioneers, and having been at the head of the company controlling the Bell interests in Cleveland for years before the independent company now fighting the older one was in existence. Judge James Milton Thomas, of Chillicothe, is almost equally prominent in the independent ranks, however, although he is a comparatively newcomer in the telephone business. He took up the telephone business when the independent companies were formed to fight the Bell interests. He is now president of the Independent Telephone Association of the United States, and also general manager of the United States Telephone company of Cleveland. He has practically deserted the practice of law for the direction of the independent telephone interests.

Mr. Glidden was born in Lowell, Mass., in 1857, and that city is still his home. Mr. Thomas was born in Ross county, this state, in 1858, and is a descendant of Samuel Thomas, who came to America in the Mayflower. Mr. Thomas is a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan university and Mr. Glidden is a graduate from the suit of a messenger boy to the place of president of one of the richest telephone corporations in the country, and he is also talked of as a probability for the presidency of the American Bell Telephone company, the parent company of all the enormous Bell telephone interests. The presidency is vacant because of the death of President Hudson. As it is, he is at the head of what is said to be the greatest operating telephone corporation in the country, the Erie Telephone and Telegraph company, of which the Bell system in Cleveland is a part.

When Mr. Glidden was 14 years old he went to work as a messenger boy for the old Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph company, so that he has been in the electrical communication business almost all his life. He became manager of a branch office of the telegraph company two years later, and when the establishment of the telephone as a commercial enterprise began in 1877, he was a canvasser for the original telephone company in Lowell. Later he became secretary and treasurer of the Erie company, and progressed through the official grades to the presidency, to which he was elected two years ago. Not long ago it was reported that this company had been sold to the group of New York capitalists of which ex-Secretary William C. Whitney is the center, but Mr. Glidden remains at the head of the company. The same capitalists are interested in the independent telephone schemes themselves, and this caused a situation that has been puzzling outsiders, who are interested in the telephone battle, ever since the announcement was made.

Judge Thomas' rise in the telephone world has been equally brilliant. One of the most important, perhaps the most important, independent or non-Bell telephone corporations outside of New York is the United States Telephone company, of this city, the company of which Judge Thomas is general manager. It controls the independent long distance business of the state, and through companies with which it has working alliances, it extends all over the middle west, and through present traffic arrangements with the Pittsburg and Allegheny Telephone company, now connects its territory with practically the whole of the east that has non-Bell systems developed.

Judge Thomas has been a lawyer for 16 years, and in 1893 was elected judge of the probate court of his county. His duties as general manager of the United States Telephone company bring him to this city frequently, and it was to some extent because of his prominence in the affairs of this company that he was elected president of the Independent Telephone Association of the United States.

The local Cuyahoga Telephone company is the Cleveland factor of the United States company so far as local business is concerned, the United States being the long distance company that connects the local companies throughout its territory with the Cleveland exchange.

BOARD OF HEALTH HELD A SESSION

THE PEOPLE WERE EXCITED

Stated That There Was No Cause For Alarm and Disease Was Not Epidemic.

CASES PROPERLY QUARANTINED

The board of health held a special session at city hall last evening.

In the absence of Mayor Davidson, Haines was selected to act as presiding officer.

After the minutes had been read and approved and the report of Health Officer Ogden ordered filed, a bill from J. M. Aten for $70, claimed due for the use of his land as a city dump was presented.

The bill called for the use of the land from December 14 to July 14 at $10 per month. Inasmuch as Mr. Aten had been notified in April that the board would need his land no longer the bill was cut down to $50, and made to read from December 14 to May 14.

Health Officer Ogden was given authority to purchase a gas generator for the purpose of fumigating.

Health Officer Ogden then brought up the East End diphtheria cases and stated that there was an unnecessary scare in that part of the city; that there was no cause for alarm whatever and that at the present time there were only three cases in the East End and they had all been properly quarantined. He said that when a case of contagious disease was reported and the head of the house was at work, they always gave him the privilege of going home and staying there or he had to keep out of the house until the patient had recovered.

The condition of Lake's run in the East End was discussed and the board members were agreed that the run should be sewer, but how to get it done is another question, as the sewer could not empty into the river at East End on account of the fact that the pump house is too close.

Dr. Mowen said all the cases of diphtheria were along this run.

Resolutions were passed declaring nuisances on the Costello property, Sixth street, and at the Dresden pottery.

The resolution describes the nuisances and gives the property owners 10 days in which to abate the same.

The ladies deserve warm commendation for their good work in this particular.

Later he became secretary and treasurer of the Erie company, and progressed through the official grades to the presidency, to which he was elected two years ago. Not long ago it was reported that this company had been sold to the group of New York capitalists of which ex-Secretary William C. Whitney is the center, but Mr. Glidden remains at the head of the company. The same capitalists are interested in the independent telephone schemes themselves, and this caused a situation that has been puzzling outsiders, who are interested in the telephone battle, ever since the announcement was made.

Judge Thomas' rise in the telephone world has been equally brilliant. One of the most important, perhaps the most important, independent or non-Bell telephone corporations outside of New York is the United States Telephone company, of this city, the company of which Judge Thomas is general manager. It controls the independent long distance business of the state, and through companies with which it has working alliances, it extends all over the middle west, and through present traffic arrangements with the Pittsburg and Allegheny Telephone company, now connects its territory with practically the whole of the east that has non-Bell systems developed.

Judge Thomas has been a lawyer for 16 years, and in 1893 was elected judge of the probate court of his county. His duties as general manager of the United States Telephone company bring him to this city frequently, and it was to some extent because of his prominence in the affairs of this company that he was elected president of the Independent Telephone Association of the United States.

The local Cuyahoga Telephone company is the Cleveland factor of the United States company so far as local business is concerned, the United States being the long distance company that connects the local companies throughout its territory with the Cleveland exchange.

BOARD OF HEALTH HELD A SESSION

Health Officer Ogden Spoke of the Diphtheria in the East End and Said

THE PEOPLE WERE EXCITED

Stated That There Was No Cause For Alarm and Disease Was Not Epidemic.

The board of health held a special session at city hall last evening.

In the absence of Mayor Davidson, Haines was selected to act as presiding officer.

After the minutes had been read and approved and the report of Health Officer Ogden ordered filed, a bill from J. M. Aten for $70, claimed due for the use of his land as a city dump was presented.

The bill called for the use of the land from December 14 to July 14 at $10 per month. Inasmuch as Mr. Aten had been notified in April that the board would need his land no longer the bill was cut down to $50, and made to read from December 14 to May 14.

Health Officer Ogden was given authority to purchase a gas generator for the purpose of fumigating.

Health Officer Ogden then brought up the East End diphtheria cases and stated that there was an unnecessary

scare in that part of the city; that there was no cause for alarm whatever and that at the present time there were only three cases in the East End and they had all been properly quarantined. He said that when a case of contagious disease was reported and the head of the house was at work, they always gave him the privilege of going home and staying there or he had to keep out of the house until the patient had recovered.

The condition of Lake's run in the East End was discussed and the board members were agreed that the run should be sewered, but how to get it done is another question, as the sewer could not empty into the river at East End on account of the fact that the pump house is too close.

Dr. Mowen said all the cases of diphtheria were along this run.

Resolutions were passed declaring nuisances on the Costello property, Sixth street, and at the Dresden pottery.

The resolution describes the nuisances and gives the property owners 10 days in which to abate the same.

ELECTED OFFICERS.

The Young People's American Temperance Society Took Action Last Night.

At the meeting of this society held last night at the First United Presbyterian church, the following officers were chosen to serve for the ensuing year: President, Louis Hardwick; vice president, Mrs. D. McDonald; recording secretary, Miss Addie Shaffer; corresponding secretary, Walter Waggoner; treasurer, Joseph Carey. The next meeting will be held at a time and place subject to the call of the president. The organization has a fine membership and will no doubt prove a power for good in this community.

THE W. H. M. SOCIETY.

This Society Will Give a Helping Hand to the Freedmen of the South.

The members of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church of East Liverpool met yesterday afternoon at the home residence of Mr. S. J. Cripps, Jackson street, where they had an informal talk with Miss Scott, representing the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Educational Society of the Methodist Episcopal church. Miss Scott gave a pleasing and instructive talk along the line of her personal experience with the colored people and the poor whites of the southland, after which the ladies of our local society agreed to give the sum of twenty-five dollars for the purpose of furnishing a room in the school for colored people at Meridian, Mississippi. The ladies deserve warm commendation for their good work in this particular.

A New Tow Boat, the Sailor, Passed
Up on Her First Trip
Today.

The Keystone State and Ben Hur
passed down last night, the Hudson passed up today and the Kanawha will
be down tonight.

The tow boat Sailor, the building of which was completed a few days ago
at Parkersburg, passed up this morning on her first trip with a tow of empties.

The marks at the wharf this morning registered 10 feet and falling.

afternoon for a business trip to New York.

EAST END.

NOT A CASE.

SANITARY OFFICER BURGESS WAS IN EAST END TODAY.

Schools Are Still Closed, But Will Probably be Reopened in the Morning.

No new cases of diphtheria have developed in East End and everything looks favorable for a speedy stamping out of the disease in that section.

Sanitary Officer Burgess was in the suburb this morning looking after the cases now under quarantine and investigating where others have been said to be afflicted with diphtheria.

In the family of Elmer Stevenson
there was reported to be a bad case,
but when the matter was looked into
there was found to be no occasion for alarm. This was also true in another case on Virginia avenue.

Of the three parties now afflicted
but one, little Edith Baird, is in a serious condition. The cases in the Haney and Stemm families are doing nicely, the former not at any time being serious.

The disease has practically left Edith Baird, but the heart action is bad and it may be that she will not recover, although the physicians in attendance states if this can be kept up the little one will recover.

There is no school in East End today, although the teachers were instructed to report for duty in the morning, and it is likely that the schools will be opened at that time, provided there is no further spread
of the disease during the day.

A Bridge Agent Here.

An agent of the Penn Bridge company, of Beaver Falls, arrived in East End this morning, with the intention of starting the iron work on the new county bridge at Dry run. He was somewhat surprised to learn that none
of the stone work had been done.

The iron arrived in the East End yesterday, but the work will be delayed for some time.
Since it has been learned that the bridge is to be an iron girder structure a story has been in circulation
to the effect that the street car company are in the deal along with the county commissioners, although the latter are all that were recognized in the deal.

On account of the kind of bridge
that will be built it is now thought
the trolley system will be extended in that direction, otherwise a much less expensive structure could have been made to answer the purpose.

Want a Street Opened.

East End people are wondering
when, if ever, the thoroughfare known as Virginia avenue will be opened to St George street.

The street is at present almost useless as an outlet, besides in case of fire it would be impossible to reach a great many residences in the upper part of town.

Several months ago Solicitor Gaston was instructed by council to negotiate with the Pennsylvania Railroad company looking to the opening of the thoroughfare, and the people who use the street are somewhat anxious to know what has been done with the matter.

Among the Sick.

Miss Mary Earl, an employe of the American Steam laundry, was off duty
yesterday owing to illness.

Austin Van Fossen has been slightly ill for several days, and this morning was compelled to quit work and return to his home down town.

Were Married Last Week.

Albert Arnold and Miss Nettie Hughes, two well known East End
young people, were united in marriage
last week at the home of the bride's parents, near Ralston Crossing.

The young couple will make their home in the East End.

Mrs. Ella Stamm Ill.

Mrs. Ella Stamm was taken ill last night and is in a very serious condition today. The family has had a great deal of sickness during the past few weeks, and the strain has been too much for her.

Quicksilver.

The ore from which quicksilver is obtained is a brilliant red rock known as cinnabar. When of high purity, it is actually vermilion in color. Cinnabar is the original source of the pigment known commercially as vermilion. It is a compound of sulphur and quick-silver, and in order to separate the latter from the sulphur the rock is roasted. Passing off in the form of a gas,
the mercury is afterward condensed and flows out in a fine stream, like a continuous pencil of molten silver.

The discovery of the famous California mines came about in an odd sort of
way by observation of the vermilion paint with which certain Indians in that part of the country frescoed their bodies. It was ascertained where they got the pigment, and thus were revealed
the rich deposits which subsequently became of such commercial importance. Like gold and silver, mercury is occasionally found in a native or pure state. Sometimes the miner's pick penetrates a cavity that contains a cupful or more of the elusive and beautiful fluid.

Miners suffer much from the poisonous effects of the quicksilver fumes. Extreme cleanliness is the best safeguard
for workers in this dangerous occupation. Use is also made of a sort of lemonade which serves to a certain extent
as an antidote, a strong acid taking the place of lemon juice in the composition of the drink.—Saturday Evening Post.

Cheaper Than a Funeral.

In a certain North Dakota town there are two physicians, one with a long record of cures and the other popularly rated as "no good."

The favored doctor found his services in great request, but as payment was not always forthcoming he made a rule that a certain class of his patients should pay in advance.

One winter's night he was roused by two farmers from a hamlet ten miles away, the wife of one of whom was seriously ill. He told them to go to the other doctor, but they refused, saying they would prefer his services. "Very well," replied the medico. "In that case my fee is $10, the money to be paid now."

The men remonstrated, but the doctor was obdurate and shut down his window. He waited, however, to hear what they would say. "Well, what will
we do now?" asked the farmer whose wife was ill. And the reply that was given must have been a gratifying as it was amusing to the listening doctor.
It was: "I think you would better give
it. The funeral would cost you more."

THE RIVER.

A New Tow Boat, the Sailor, Passed
Up on Her First Trip
Today.

The Keystone State and Ben Hur
passed down last night, the Hudson
passed up today and the Kanawha will
be down tonight.

The tow boat Sailor, the building of
which was completed a few days ago
at Parkersburg, passed up this morning on her first trip with a tow of empties.

The marks at the wharf this morning registered 10 feet and falling.

—William F. Steele left yesterday afternoon for a business trip to New York.

EAST END.

NOT A CASE.

SANITARY OFFICER BURGESS WAS
IN EAST END TODAY.

Schools Are Still Closed, But Will Probably be Reopened in the Morning.

No new cases of diphtheria have developed in East End and everything
looks favorable for a speedy stamping out of the disease in that section.

Sanitary Officer Burgess was in the suburb this morning looking after the
cases now under quarantine and investigating where others have been
said to be afflicted with diphtheria.

In the family of Elmer Stevenson
there was reported to be a bad case,
but when the matter was looked into
there was found to be no occasion
for alarm. This was also true in another case on Virginia avenue.

Of the three parties now afflicted
but one, little Edith Baird, is in a serious condition. The cases in the Haney and Stemm families are doing nicely, the former not at any time being serious.

The disease has practically left Edith Baird, but the heart action is bad and it may be that she will not recover, although the physicians in attendance states if this can be kept
up the little one will recover.

There is no school in East End today, although the teachers were instructed to report for duty in the morning, and it is likely that the
schools will be opened at that time,
provided there is no further spread
of the disease during the day.

A Bridge Agent Here.

An agent of the Penn Bridge company, of Beaver Falls, arrived in East End this morning, with the intention of starting the iron work on the new county bridge at Dry run. He was somewhat surprised to learn that none
of the stone work had been done.

The iron arrived in the East End
yesterday, but the work will be delayed for some time.

Since it has been learned that the bridge is to be an iron girder structure a story has been in circulation
to the effect that the street car company are in the deal along with
the county commissioners, although
the latter are all that were recognized in the deal.

On account of the kind of bridge
that will be built it is now thought
the trolley system will be extended
in that direction, otherwise a much less expensive structure could have been made to answer the purpose.

Want a Street Opened.

East End people are wondering
when, if ever, the thoroughfare known
as Virginia avenue will be opened to St George street.

The street is at present almost useless as an outlet, besides in case of
fire it would be impossible to reach a great many residences in the upper part of town.

Several months ago Solicitor Gaston was instructed by council to negotiate with the Pennsylvania Railroad company looking to the opening of
the thoroughfare, and the people who use the street are somewhat anxious to know what has been done with
the matter.

Among the Sick.

Miss Mary Earl, an employee of the American Steam laundry, was off duty
yesterday owing to illness.

Austin Van Fossen has been slightly ill for several days, and this morning was compelled to quit work and
return to his home down town.

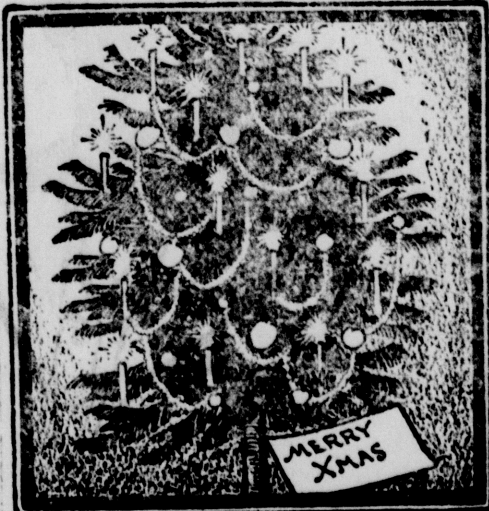

Were Married Last Week.

Albert Arnold and Miss Nettle
Hughes, two well known East End
young people, were united in marriage
last week at the home of the bride's parents, near Ralston Crossing.

In the Diamond.

The young couple will make their home in the East End.

Mrs. Ella Stamm Ill.

Mrs. Ella Stamm was taken ill last night and is in a very serious condition today. The family has had a great deal of sickness during the past few weeks, and the strain has been too much for her.

Quicksilver.

The ore from which quicksilver is obtained is a brilliant red rock known as cinnabar. When of high purity, it is actually vermilion in color. Cinnabar
is the original source of the pigment
known commercially as vermilion. It is a compound of sulphur and quick-
silver, and in order to separate the latter from the sulphur the rock is roast-
ed. Passing off in the form of a gas,
the mercury is afterward condensed
and flows out in a fine stream, like a continuous pencil of molten silver.

The discovery of the famous California mines came about in an odd sort of
way by observation of the vermilion
paint with which certain Indians in
that part of the country frescoed their bodies. It was ascertained where they got the pigment, and thus were revealed
the rich deposits which subsequently became of such commercial importance. Like gold and silver, mercury is occasionally found in a native or pure
state. Sometimes the miner's pick penetrates a cavity that contains a cupful or more of the elusive and beautiful fluid.

Miners suffer much from the poisonous effects of the quicksilver fumes. Extreme cleanliness is the best safeguard
for workers in this dangerous occupation. Use is also made of a sort of lemonade which serves to a certain extent
as an antidote, a strong acid taking the place of lemon juice in the composition
of the drink.—Saturday Evening Post.

Cheaper Than a Funeral.

In a certain North Dakota town there
are two physicians, one with a long record of cures and the other popularly
rated as "no good."

The favored doctor found his services
in great request, but as payment was
not always forthcoming he made a rule
that a certain class of his patients
should pay in advance.

One winter's night he was roused by
two farmers from a hamlet ten miles away, the wife of one of whom was seriously ill. He told them to go to the other doctor, but they refused, saying
they would prefer his services. "Very well," replied the medico. "In that case my fee is $10, the money to be paid now."

The men remonstrated, but the doctor was obdurate and shut down his window. He waited, however, to hear what they would say. "Well, what will
we do now?" asked the farmer whose wife was ill. And the reply that was given must have been as gratifying as it was amusing to the listening doctor.
It was: "I think you would better give
it. The funeral would cost you more."

THE GIRL QUESTION.

The "domestic" question has become harder to solve than the Chinese conundrum. It seems almost impossible to secure a good girl for general housework. The inclination seems to be to work in the pottery or to reach a berth as saleslady. All over our city comes the cry: "What shall we do for girls?" If some second Solomon will step into the breach and solve this vexed riddle, he will be called "blessed" among men by troubled wives and heads of households.

Brown's Buttered Watermelon.

Colonel George W. Anderson, a man of splendid genius and rare oratorical gifts, was stumping for Greeley and Brown down in southwest Missouri. One night in the midst of his speech an old fellow arose in the back of the house and said:

"Colonel Anderson, is it true that Governor Brown was so drunk at that Yale alumni dinner that he buttered his watermelon?"

Colonel Anderson reared back on his pastern joints, straightened himself to his 6 feet 2 and with a lion's roar answered:

"Yes, it is true that Governor Brown buttered his watermelon at the Yale alumni dinner, and I am happy to inform you that that is the only way in which watermelons are eaten in polite society."

Anderson's happy retort was greeted with a shout of laughter and a roar of applause by his auditors. His interrogator sat down discomfited, and that was the last ever heard of the story of the buttered watermelon—all of which goes to demonstrate the value of Danton's famous motto: "L'audace! L'audace! Toujours l'audace!"

Colonel Anderson was a wonderful stumper. He was most emphatically a rough diamond. In the rough and tumble, catch-as-you-can style of debating he never had a superior in Missouri, which is saying a great deal. He was an adept in the use of every species of oratorical weapon.—Cham Clark in Saturday Evening Post.

A Lucid Decision.

A correspondent, referring to a recent article in Law Notes on "The Grammar of the Courts," calls attention to the following lucid decision of Sir John Taylor Coleridge in the case of Turley against Thomas, 8 C. and P. 103, 34 E. C. L. 312: "It has been suggested as a doubt by the learned counsel for the defendant whether the rule of the road applies to saddle horses or only to carriages. Now I have no doubt that it does."—Law Notes.

An Accident.

Little Bessie having been punished for misbehavior, slunk to the other end of the room, crying. Her mother turned to view her repentance, but found her engaged in making faces at her.

"Why, Bessie," said her mother, "how can you do so?"

"Oh, mamma," answered the little girl, "I was trying to smile at you, but my face slipped."—London Answers.

VERY SKILLFUL DENTISTRY

A Law Suit Places the Defendant In a Very Peculiar Position.

HIS WITNESSES SPEAK OUT

As Experts and Pronounce the Work of the Plaintiff as First Class In Every Detail.

A FEATHER IN DR. LITTLE'S CAP

Some time since, Dr. J. M. Little, the well known, popular and skillful dentist, located in the W. L. Thompson block, Market street, had occasion to do a fine piece of bridge work for one of our townsmen. In due time payment was made by said defendant, with the exception of a balance of ten dollars, and this he refused to pay, claiming that the work was not satisfactory and not in accordance with the skilled work done by experts in this age of advanced dentistry.

Dr. Little was loath to enter suit on the account, and endeavored to effect an amicable settlement, telling his late patron that the work done for him was first-class in every detail, and fully equal to that of any expert anywhere.

He asserted that it was not merely a matter of ten dollars, but a matter of principle, backed by pride in the profession, as a failure to push the claim would be a virtual admission that the work was not up to date and that the charge for the same was extravagant.

The defendant still remained obstinate and refused payment of the balance of the account, and Dr. Little was unwillingly forced to enter suit before a magistrate.

The case came up last night before Esquire Rose, and the defendant placed three expert dentists on the stand in defense of his case, three men of experience, thoroughly conversant with the latest and best approved methods of the most modern schools of dentistry.

And here was where the defendant made a mistake and met his Waterloo, as the three experts, under the closest and most careful examination, testified that the bridge work in question was executed in the most skillful manner, and that it was really a credit to the artist who had produced it.

Of course there was but one thing for the court to do under the circumstances, and that was to render his verdict in favor of the plaintiff. Dr. Little, in speaking of the verdict, said:

"I hate legal quibbling. I hate to sue a patron, under any circumstances. I was compelled, from the standpoint of professional pride, to prosecute this case, as failure to do so would have been used against me in my profession. My enemies would have claimed that my work would not stand the test of critical inspection at the hands of experts. Of course I am pleased with the verdict."

The December issue of McClure's Magazine contains an article on kindergartens from the pen of Josephine Dodge Daskam, and one paragraph in the article will be of interest to many of the teachers now in the public schools and others, who heard Dr. Stanley Hall lecture here.

In the course of the story the following appears:

"Mrs. R. B. M. Smith is here today to visit the primary schools and kindergartens, and —"

"Oh, goodness," the attempted consolation of Marantha ceased abruptly, "I can't bear that woman. She's always reads Stanley Hall's last article that proves that what he said before was wrong!"

Took His Last Cent For a Drink.

The old soak, in his tattered, patched coat, shuffled up to the bar, where he had drained off so many drinks, and looked wistfully at the bottles of red liquor in a row about two arms' length away.

"Say, Jim, old boy," he said to the bartender in the most winning tone he could muster, "you wouldn't take a man's last cent for a drink, would ye?"

"You bet your life I would!" snapped Jim, with the viciousness of a steel trap. Jim suspected an effort to get a drink on tick and proposed to forestall it.

"Well, I s'pose I got to have her, set her out," and the soak heaved up a great sigh that shook his frame with emotion.

Jim heaved a much lighter weight sigh on discovering that the drink was to be paid for. He set out the bottle of the roughest goods he had in the house. The unwelcome customer poured out four fingers and drank it down with evident relish. Wiping his mouth on his coat sleeve, he reached into his pocket, and, pulling out one old, tarnished cent that he had found on the sidewalk, he slapped it on the counter.

"There you are, Jim!" he gurgled.

"What's this?" yelled Jim in loud, strident tones.

"You said you'd take me last cent for a drink, and there it is."

Jim reached under the bar for a baseball bat which he always had on tap, but before he could get it out the artful soak had disappeared through the front door.—Chicago Chronicle.

THE GIRL QUESTION.

The "domestic" question has become harder to solve than the Chinese conundrum. It seems almost impossible to secure a good girl for general housework. The inclination seems to be to work in the pottery or to reach a berth as saleslady. All over our city comes the cry: "What shall we do for girls?" If some second Solomon will step into the breach and solve this vexed riddle, he will be called "blessed" among men by troubled wives and heads of households.

Brown's Buttered Watermelon.

Colonel George W. Anderson, a man of splendid genius and rare oratorical gifts, was stumping for Greeley and Brown down in southwest Missouri. One night in the midst of his speech an old fellow arose in the back of the house and said:

"Colonel Anderson, is it true that Governor Brown was so drunk at that Yale alumni dinner that he buttered his watermelon?"

Colonel Anderson reared back on his pastern joints, straightened himself to his 6 feet 2 and with a lion's roar answered:

"Yes, it is true that Governor Brown buttered his watermelon at the Yale alumni dinner, and I am happy to inform you that that is the only way in which watermelons are eaten in polite society."

Anderson's happy retort was greeted with a shout of laughter and a roar of applause by his auditors. His interrogator sat down discomfited, and that was the last ever heard of the story of the buttered watermelon—all of which goes to demonstrate the value of Danton's famous motto: "L'audace! L'audace! Toujours l'audace!"

Colonel Anderson was a wonderful stumper. He was most emphatically a rough diamond. In the rough and tumble, catch-as-you-can style of debating he never had a superior in Missouri, which is saying a great deal. He was an adept in the use of every species of oratorical weapon.—Champ Clark in Saturday Evening Post.

A Lucid Decision.

A correspondent, referring to a recent article in Law Notes on "The Grammar of the Courts," calls attention to the following lucid decision of Sir John Taylor Coleridge in the case of Turley against Thomas, 8 C. and P. 103, 34 E. C. L. 312: "It has been suggested as a doubt by the learned counsel for the defendant whether the rule of the road applies to saddle horses or only to carriages. Now I have no doubt that it does."—Law Notes.

An Accident.

Little Bessie having been punished for misbehavior, slunk to the other end of the room, crying. Her mother turned to view her repentance, but found her engaged in making faces at her. "Why, Bessie," said her mother, "how can you do so?" "Oh, mamma," answered the little girl, "I was trying to smile at you, but my face slipped."—London Answers.

VERY SKILLFUL DENTISTRY

A Law Suit Places the Defendant
In a Very Peculiar Position.

HIS WITNESSES SPEAK OUT

As Experts and Pronounce the Work of the Plaintiff as First Class In Every Detail.

A FEATHER IN DR. LITTLE'S CAP

Some time since, Dr. J. M. Little, the well known, popular and skillful dentist, located in the W. L. Thompson block, Market street, had occasion to do a fine piece of bridge work for one of our townsmen. In due time payment was made by said defendant, with the exception of a balance of ten dollars, and this he refused to pay, claiming that the work was not satisfactory and not in accordance with the skilled work done by experts in this age of advanced dentistry.

Dr. Little was loath to enter suit on the account, and endeavored to effect an amicable settlement, telling his late patron that the work done for him was first-class in every detail, and fully equal to that of any expert anywhere.

He asserted that it was not merely a matter of ten dollars, but a matter of principle, backed by pride in the profession, as a failure to push the claim would be a virtual admission that the work was not up to date and that the charge for the same was extravagant.

The defendant still remained obstinate and refused payment of the balance of the account, and Dr. Little was unwillingly forced to enter suit before a magistrate.

The case came up last night before Esquire Rose, and the defendant placed three expert dentists on the stand in defense of his case, three men of experience, thoroughly conversant with the latest and best approved methods of the most modern schools of dentistry.

And here was where the defendant made a mistake and met his Waterloo, as the three experts, under the closest and most careful examination, testified that the bridge work in question was executed in the most skillful manner, and that it was really a credit to the artist who had produced it.

Of course there was but one thing for the court to do under the circumstances, and that was to render his verdict in favor of the plaintiff. Dr. Little, in speaking of the verdict, said:

"I hate legal quibbling. I hate to sue a patron, under any circumstances. I was compelled, from the standpoint of professional pride, to prosecute this case, as failure to do so would have been used against me in my profession. My enemies would have claimed that my work would not stand the test of critical inspection at the hands of experts. Of course I am pleased with the verdict."

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE.

The December issue of McClure's Magazine contains an article on kindergartens from the pen of Josephine Dodge Daskam, and one paragraph in the article will be of interest to many of the teachers now in the public schools and others, who heard Dr. Stanley Hall lecture here.

In the course of the story the following appears:

"Mrs. R. B. M. Smith is here today to visit the primary schools and kindergartens, and —"

"Oh, goodness," the attempted consolation of Marantha ceased abruptly, "I can't bear that woman. She's always reads Stanley Hall's last article that proves that what he said before was wrong!"

Took His Last Cent For a Drink.

The old soak, in his tattered, patched coat, shuffled up to the bar, where he had drained off so many drinks, and looked wistfully at the bottles of red liquor in a row about two arms' length away.

"Say, Jim, old boy," he said to the bartender in the most winning tone he could muster, "you wouldn't take a man's last cent for a drink, would ye?"

"You bet your life I would!" snapped Jim, with the viciousness of a steel trap. Jim suspected an effort to get a drink on tick and proposed to forestall it.

"Well, I s'pose I got to have her, set her out," and the soak heaved up a great sigh that shook his frame with emotion.

Jim heaved a much lighter weight sigh on discovering that the drink was to be paid for. He set out the bottle of the roughest goods he had in the house. The unwelcome customer poured out four fingers and drank it down with evident relish. Wiping his mouth on his coat sleeve, he reached into his pocket, and, pulling out one old, tarnished cent that he had found on the sidewalk, he slapped it on the counter. "There you are, Jim!" he gurgled.

"What's this?" yelled Jim in loud, strident tones.

"You said you'd take me last cent for a drink, and there it is."

Jim reached under the bar for a baseball bat which he always had on tap, but before he could get it out the artful soak had disappeared through the front door.—Chicago Chronicle.

OUR BOARD OF HEALTH.

Its Policy And Practice is the Subject of Much Criticism.

Editor News Review—I wish to criticize or to take exceptions to a certain policy or practice of our board of health or of its police official in the matter of quarantining or even placarding a private residence on account of measles. Assuming their action is never arbitrary, I believe it to be impolitic, unusual and uncalled for. Many prominent sanitary officials and medical authorities encourage and advocate the actual exposure of children over two and under fifteen to this disease, for the same reason we vaccinate or substitute cowpox for smallpox. Observation and experience, confirmed by statistics, show that this disease among children is comparatively mild, and that the mortality is one-fourth less than among adults.

So that it seems wise to forestall the measles of adults, always a dangerous affection and involving the subject in many incidental complications and annoyances, by substituting the measles of childhood so much less troublesome and dangerous, and where the child is under the home roof and can receive the fostering care of parents.

Much stronger reasons can be given for quarantining against whooping cough than against measles. Medical statistics show again that a larger per cent of deaths among children result from the former than from the latter disease. It is too a most tedious and vexatious disease, lasting weeks and even months, and often accompanied, physicians tell us, by pneumonia or lung fever, bronchitis, pleurisy and other disorders. And then adult life is practically exempt from it, and when it is acquired the complications and mortality are very small. The logical conclusion is, and that is accepted by the best authorities, keep the children from whooping cough and let them have the measles. Our board of health, however, or its police official, seem to reverse the authorities and the more common practice, and quarantine against measles and let the whooping cough go scot free.

A case in question known to the writer, and which suggested this article, occurred a day or two ago. Our efficient sanitary police officer passed the very door and ignored a case of whooping cough on a business street and went out into an isolated district and put up a big measles card, where it still remains and where but few, aside from the occupants of the house, are likely ever to see it.

The writer would beg leave to call the attention of those interested to a popular article on this subject in the November number of "Good Housekeeping," by Dr. C. F. Wahrer, an eminent writer and authority on medical subjects, in support of his views here submitted.

Judge Thayer Sustained Ruling of Trial Courts and Subsequent Action of President McKinley—Prisoner Remanded to Warden's Custody.

St. Louis, Dec. 11.—In a decision handed down by Judge Hook, of the Federal district court of Kansas, and concurred in by United States Circuit Judge Amos Thayer, Oberlin M. Carter, former captain United States army, under sentence of five years' imprisonment for misappropriation of government funds while in charge of the harbor work of Savannah, is remanded to the custody of Robert W. McLaughry, warden of the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, where Carter has been confined.

The court overruled the petitioner's demurrer on the habeas corpus writ issued some time ago, and sustained the ruling of the trial courts, together with the subsequent action of President McKinley, who set aside 12 of the charges under which he was convicted, but made no change of the sentence imposed by the court martial.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BIDDLE.

She Was Actively Interested In Many Charities—Church Built Through Her Efforts.

Philadelphia, Dec. 11.—The funeral of Mary Deborah Biddle, sister of Prof. Spencer F. Baird, of the Smithsonian institute, widow of the late Colonel Henry J. Biddle, who died suddenly last Monday at her country home in Edgewood, Chester county, Pa., took place.

She married her cousin, Colonel Biddle, who died from wounds received at the battle of New Market cross roads in 1862. Mrs. Biddle was actively interested in many charities. She was a manager of the Philadelphia Orphan asylum, the Presbyterian hospital, the Society to Protect Children from Cruelty, and was connected with many other institutions of a like nature. She was also a member of the Colonial Dames, the City Parks and Forestry associations and the Acorn club. In Carlisle she founded the Lydia Beard home for old ladies and the Carlisle mission, a memorial chapel to her son, Lieutenant J. W. Biddle, of the Seventh United States cavalry. She endowed the Biddle university for the education of colored clergymen at Charlotte, N. C., immediately after the Civil War. The Presbyterian church at Dilworthtown, Pa., was built through Mrs. Biddle's efforts. Four sons survive her.

The board also accepted the resignation of Herman Sielcken as a director, leaving his place vacant. So far as could be learned there was no action taken at the meeting regarding the purchase of the American steamship line.

DEFENDANTS TO PAY COSTS.

A Nolle Prosequi Entered in Pennsylvania Legislative Bribery Cases.

Harrisburg, Dec. 11.—The remaining bribery, perjury and conspiracy cases of the last session of the Pennsylvania state legislature on which true bills were found by a grand jury of Dauphin county, came to a close, when District Attorney Miller entered a nolle prosequi. This was entered on the agreement of the defendants to pay the costs, which amounted to about $2,000.

The only case heard was that against John J. Coyle, who was acquitted and ordered to pay half the costs. The others against whom true bills were found were Michael J. Costello, Frank B. Jones, Robert Evans, Charles B. Spatz, Thomas M. Moyles and Monroe H. Kulp.

ELIJAH W. HILL,

Real Estate Dealer,

Second Floor Grand Building, Corner Sixth and Washington,
EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

DO YOU WISH TO BUY OR SELL REAL ESTATE? If so, consult us.

We have the facilities for accommodating you. Having made real estate dealing a specialty for some time, we have become established in the business. Every day brings us new business and nearly every day sees a deal consummated. Our volume of business grows out of the reasonableness of our charges. We never speculate on other peoples' property. The price set by the owner is the price the purchaser pays. We do not conduct our business on the "get rich quick" plan. Our patrons appreciate this and show it by sending us other patrons. Owners of property who desire to sell the same will do well to place it on our sale list. Those intending to purchase property will do well to consult us before buying.

In all of our business we take care of the interests of both owner and purchaser. We are neither for the one or the other. Justice between both parties is what we seek.

Owners who want a quick sale and will offer a genuine bargain can be accommodated at all times by us. Purchasers, who want a bargain, can take advantage of these offers if they will let us know that they are in the market for such.

Those who have but little money, say from $50 to $100, can buy a home from us at any time, the balance being paid on installments at the rate of $1 monthly to the $100 of indebtedness, which pays both interest and principal, with privilege of paying faster. The large assortment of properties we have constantly on sale enables us to usually suit you.

DO YOU WISH FIRE INSURANCE? This is another branch of our business. We represent ten different companies, all of high standard. We insure dwellings, barns, mercantile buildings, factories, merchandise, household goods, etc. We write at regular rates. We think it unfair to give what is known as "cut rates." As a basis for dwelling rates, we would say that a frame, slate roof building which stands unexposed by other buildings for the space of 25 feet on all sides, will cost you 35 cents per $100 insurance for one year; 70 cents per $100 for three years; or, $1 per $100 for five years. This applies to household goods as well. Household goods are just as valuable, proportionately to you as the house is to its owner, and we often wonder why so many owners of household goods let themselves be exposed to loss, and often lose them when insurance rates are so reasonable.

BONDS, STOCKS AND INVESTMENTS we also handle. We can sell you local stocks, bonds and investments, and also corporation, bank and railroad stocks and bonds. Not much business in this line has developed here yet, but by your co-operation with us, either as a buyer or seller, will be all that is necessary to develop such.

HOUSE RENTING as a business is what East Liverpool has needed for some time. In our renting department, you find such and every day is adding to its utility. If you have any properties to rent place them with us and see if it does not profit you.

All kinds of notarial work executed, such as acknowledgements, writing of wills, deeds, mortgages, contracts and agreements. We also procure marriage licenses.

Loaning of money on real estate is another feature of our business. We negotiate loans for a reasonable charge, the rate of interest depending on the class of security and amount wanted. Those who have money to put out should avail themselves of our facilities for doing this kind of business. No charges to the lender.

To the public we extend free of charge our services in the way of supplying information of a general nature concerning our city and vicinity. We try to have at all times just what you want to know.

We open this week a free bureau for the accommodation of those who are seeking houses to rent and landlords who are seeking tenants. We are constantly besieged with applications for houses for rent. To this end we invite all owners of rentable houses in the city or vicinity to let us know when they want or will want a tenant. If they will do so we will refer inquirers to them, making no charge whatever, either to applicant or owner. Landlords by doing this need never have a house empty for more than a day.

In the above we have endeavored to give you the general nature of the business in which we engage. We ask but a continuance of the patronage of the past, and, as then, we will endeavor to render you honest, accurate and valuable service.

She Was Actively Interested In Many Charities—Church Built Through Her Efforts.

Philadelphia, Dec. 11.—The funeral of Mary Deborah Biddle, sister of Prof. Spencer F. Baird, of the Smithsonian institute, widow of the late Colonel Henry J. Biddle, who died suddenly last Monday at her country home in Edgewood, Chester county, Pa., took place.

She married her cousin, Colonel Biddle, who died from wounds received at the battle of New Market cross roads in 1862. Mrs. Biddle was actively interested in many charities. She was a manager of the Philadelphia Orphan asylum, the Presbyterian hospital, the Society to Protect Children from Cruelty, and was connected with many other institutions of a like nature. She was also a member of the Colonial Dames, the City Parks and Forestry associations, and the Acorn club. In Carlisle she founded the Lydia Beard home for old ladies and the Carlisle mission, a memorial chapel to her son, Lieutenant J. W. Biddle, of the Seventh United States cavalry. She endowed the Biddle university for the education of colored clergymen at Charlotte, N. C., immediately after the Civil War. The Presbyterian church at Dilworthtown, Pa., was built through Mrs. Biddle's efforts. Four sons survive her.

The only case heard was that against John J. Coyle, who was acquitted and ordered to pay half the costs. The others against whom true bills were found were Michael J. Costello, Frank B. Jones, Robert Evans, Charles B. Neatz, Thomas M. Moyles and Monroe H. Kulp.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

DO YOU WISH TO BUY OR SELL REAL ESTATE? If so, consult us.

We have the facilities for accommodating you. Having made real estate dealing a specialty for some time, we have become established in the business. Every day brings us new business and nearly every day sees a deal consummated. Our volume of business grows out of the reasonableness of our charges. We never speculate on other peoples' property. The price set by the owner is the price the purchaser pays. We do not conduct our business on the "get rich quick" plan. Our patrons appreciate this and show it by sending us other patrons. Owners of property who desire to sell the same will do well to place it on our sale list. Those intending to purchase property will do well to consult us before buying.

In all of our business we take care of the interests of both owner and purchaser. We are neither for the one or the other. Justice between both parties is what we seek.

Owners who want a quick sale and will offer a genuine bargain can be accommodated at all times by us. Purchasers, who want a bargain, can take advantage of these offers if they will let us know that they are in the market for such.

Those who have but little money, say from $50 to $100, can buy a home from us at any time, the balance being paid on installments at the rate of $1 monthly to the $100 of indebtedness, which pays both interest and principal, with privilege of paying faster. The large assortment of properties we have constantly on sale enables us to usually suit you.

DO YOU WISH FIRE INSURANCE? This is another branch of our business. We represent ten different companies, all of high standard. We insure dwellings, barns, mercantile buildings, factories, merchandise, household goods, etc. We write at regular rates. We think it unfair to give what is known as "cut rates." As a basis for dwelling rates, we would say that a frame, slate roof building which stands unexposed by other buildings for the space of 25 feet on all sides, will cost you 35 cents per $100 insurance for one year; 70 cents per $100 for three years; or, $1 per $100 for five years. This applies to household goods as well. Household goods are just as valuable, proportionately to you as the house is to its owner, and we often wonder why so many owners of household goods let themselves be exposed to loss, and often lose them when insurance rates are so reasonable.

BONDS, STOCKS AND INVESTMENTS we also handle. We can sell you local stocks, bonds and investments, and also corporation, bank and railroad stocks and bonds. Not much business in this line has developed here yet, but by your co-operation with us, either as a buyer or seller, will be all that is necessary to develop such.

HOUSE RENTING as a business is what East Liverpool has needed for some time. In our renting department, you find such and every day is adding to its utility. If you have any properties to rent place them with us and see if it does not profit you.

All kinds of notarial work executed, such as acknowledgements, writing of wills, deeds, mortgages, contracts and agreements. We also procure marriage licenses.

Loaning of money on real estate is another feature of our business. We negotiate loans for a reasonable charge, the rate of interest depending on the class of security and amount wanted. Those who have money to put out should avail themselves of our facilities for doing this kind of business. No charges to the lender.

To the public we extend free of charge our services in the way of supplying information of a general nature concerning our city and vicinity. We try to have at all times just what you want to know.

We open this week a free bureau for the accommodation of those who are seeking houses to rent and landlords who are seeking tenants. We are constantly besieged with applications for houses for rent. To this end we invite all owners of rentable houses in the city or vicinity to let us know when they want or will want a tenant. If they will do so we will refer inquirers to them, making no charge whatever, either to applicant or owner. Landlords by doing this need never have a house empty for more than a day.

In the above we have endeavored to give you the general nature of the business in which we engage. We ask but a continuance of the patronage of the past, and, as then, we will endeavor to render you honest, accurate and valuable service.

Returned from Cumberland.

Charles Allison, Justice Johnson and Constable J. H. Allison returned from New Cumberland last evening, where the oath was administered for each of their respective offices.

A peculiarity about the bond of the former official, and an argument that goes farther to explain the reason for the election of Mr. Allison, is that his bondsmen are made up of Democrats, Republicans and Populists. They are as follows: W. J. Johnson, Samuel Allison, O. O. Allison, J. T. Allison, R. M. Cunningham, T. R. Cunningham, J. D. Stewart, Doles Jackson, A. M. Fowler, J. W. Finley, I. N. Finley, Thomas Campbell and B. J. Duncan.

OUR BOARD OF HEALTH.

Its Policy And Practice is the Subject of Much Criticism.

Editor News Review—I wish to criticize or to take exceptions to a certain policy or practice of our board of health or of its police official in the matter of quarantining or even placarding a private residence on account of measles. Assuming their action is never arbitrary, I believe it to be impolitic, unusual and uncalled for. Many prominent sanitary officials and medical authorities encourage and advocate the actual exposure of children over two and under fifteen to this disease, for the same reason we vaccinate or substitute cowpox for smallpox. Observation and experience, confirmed by statistics, show that this disease among children is comparatively mild, and that the mortality is one-fourth less than among adults.

So that it seems wise to forestall the measles of adults, always a dangerous affection and involving the subject in many incidental complications and annoyances, by substituting the measles of childhood so much less troublesome and dangerous, and where the child is under the home roof and can receive the fostering care of parents.

Much stronger reasons can be given for quarantining against whooping cough than against measles. Medical statistics show again that a larger percent of deaths among children result from the former than from the latter disease. It is too a most tedious and vexatious disease, lasting weeks and even months, and often accompanied, physicians tell us, by pneumonia or lung fever, bronchitis, pleurisy and other disorders. And then adult life is practically exempt from it, and when it is acquired the complications and mortality are very small. The logical conclusion is, and that is accepted by the best authorities, keep the children from whooping cough and let them have the measles. Our board of health, however, or its police official, seem to reverse the authorities and the more common practice, and quarantine against measles and let the whooping cough go scot free.

A case in question known to the writer, and which suggested this article, occurred a day or two ago. Our efficient sanitary police officer passed the very door and ignored a case of whooping cough on a business street and went out into an isolated district and put up a big measles card, where it still remains and where but few, aside from the occupants of the house, are likely ever to see it.

The writer would beg leave to call the attention of those interested to a popular article on this subject in the November number of "Good House-keeping," by Dr. C. F. Wahrer, an eminent writer and authority on medical subjects, in support of his views here submitted.

Yours very truly,

AN EAST ENDER.

HABEAS CORPUS WRIT REFUSED.

Judge Thayer Sustained Ruling of Trial Courts and Subsequent Action of President McKinley—Prisoner Remanded to Warden's Custody.

St. Louis, Dec. 11.—In a decision handed down by Judge Hook, of the Federal district court of Kansas, and concurred in by United States Circuit Judge Amos Thayer, Oberlin M. Carter, former captain United States army, under sentence of five years' imprisonment for misappropriation of government funds while in charge of the harbor work of Savannah, is remanded to the custody of Robert W. McLaughlin, warden of the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, where Carter has been confined.

The court overruled the petitioner's demurrer on the habeas corpus writ issued some time ago, and sustained the ruling of the trial courts, together with the subsequent action of President McKinley, who set aside 12 of the charges under which he was convicted, but made no change of the sentence imposed by the court martial.

FAVOR AN INCOME TAX

Democrats Advocate Such a Provision.

THE WAR REDUCTION TOO LOW.

Minority Members of the Ways and Means Say It Should Be Cut $70,000,000—Burdenome on Beer and Tobacco Interests—Blame Monopolies on Tariff.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The views of the minority members of the ways and means committee on the bill reducing war revenue axes about $40,000,000 was completed and made public. It is signed by the entire Democratic membership of the committee—Messrs. Richardson, of Tennessee; Swanson, of Virginia; McClellan, of New York; Newlands, of Nevada; Cooper, of Texas, and Underwood, of Alabama.

The report says that the minority are of opinion that the proposed reduction of revenue is too small and that the bill does not go far enough in relieving the people of the burdens imposed upon them for war purposes. The remaining taxes, says the report, are unnecessary and should be removed.

The minority takes issue with Secretary Gage's estimate of $26,000,000 surplus in 1902, and says that if congress observes proper economy in expenditures the surplus ought to be $109,000,000.

"Instead of taking off the sum of $40,000,000, as is proposed, we would go further and reduce taxation not less than $70,000,000.

"We believe that by a return to proper economy in appropriations a reduction greater than we advocate could be made, and we should at once enforce this economy. The war being over the war taxes should cease, and the 'train of extraordinary expenditures' following the war should also terminate.

"We shall not, however, oppose the passage of the bill, for it gives some relief, but will endeavor to propitiously amend it.

"It has been proved beyond question by evidence before the industrial commission appointed by congress, that many of the powerful trusts that have an absolute monopoly of their business in this country and that exercise their power despotically and injuriously to the people largely owe their growth to the customs duties imposed in the Dingley tariff law, which prohibits foreign competition.

"By destroying in many cases all foreign competition this bill has made possible home combination with all of the evils of monopoly. We witness daily the gross injustice of these monopolies, created and fostered by the government, selling goods as they continually do to foreign consumers out of the same factory at a lower price than they sell the same goods to home consumers.

"We urgently insist that the present tariff laws should be modified so as to prevent this imposition upon our own citizens.

"We believe that a provision could and should be prepared which would accomplish the just ends sought in an income tax, yet escape an adverse decision of the supreme court of the United States such as was rendered against the income tax provided for in the Wilson law."

The report says that a reduction of $70,000,000 in taxation would permit the relief of the tobacco and beer producing interests, which have suffered from heavy war taxes and would enable the abolition of many vexatious and excessive taxes that will be continued under the proposed legislation.

FAVORS THE BOUTELLE BILL.

Long Thinks His Services Deserve the Reward Proposed.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Secretary Long has written to Chairman Foss, of the house naval committee, relative to the proposed retiring of Representative Boutelle, of Maine, as a captain of the navy, in the course of which he said in part:

"If the reward proposed in the resolution, that is, the placing of a person not at the time on the active list of the navy upon the retired list can ever be appropriate, it would appear to be so in the present case. Mr. Boutelle served with distinction as an officer of the navy during the critical period of the Civil War. During his service as chairman of the committee on naval affairs his experience as a naval officer and extensive acquaintance with naval matters proved of great value in the upbuilding of the navy, to which he untiringly devoted his energies and abilities."

The secretary further along said: "In view of the precedents above given and others which might be cited, and in consideration of the exceptional features of the case, the department makes no objection to the legislation proposed by the joint resolution in question."

Appropriation Bill Passed House.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The first of the great supply bills, the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, was passed by the house in record time. The bill carries $24,400,308 and has 131 pages, but there was less than 10 minutes' debate upon it. Mr. Bingham, of Pennsylvania, who was in charge of the measure, tendered his thanks to the house for the confidence shown in the appropriation committee. It required about three hours for the clerk to read the bill.

Towne Was Worn In.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Hon. Charles A. Towne, the recently appointed successor to the late Senator Davis, of Minnesota, attended the session of the senate and took the oath of office. No business of importance was transacted in open session, the senate going into secret session on the Hay-Pauncefote treaty as soon as routine business had been concluded.

NO BENEFIT TO KRUGER.

German Chancellor Pointed Out Futility of Overtures—Tried to Prevent South African War.

Berlin, Dec. 11.—The imperial chancellor, Count Von Buelow, replying in the reichstag to a question on the subject of Mr. Kruger's failure to be received by Emperor William, said the government did all in its power to ward off war and left the two republics in no doubt as to the state of affairs in Europe and as to the German neutrality. When in 1899 the question of arbitration seemed not altogether excluded the government recommended it to Mr. Kruger. He thought the time had not yet come. Mr. Kruger later sought intervention, but his feelings were too highly inflamed for the Dutch and German governments. For the German government it was lost time to give advice. Germany was convinced that any step of a great power at that time would be critical and would have led to no result. "There was no use for us," said the chancellor, "to pinch our fingers between the door and the hinge." The chancellor added that when the suggestion of mediation was made to Great Britain by the United States in a quite gently worded inquiry it was rejected officially and categorically. Intervention might have led to war.

The chancellor described the reply of M. Delcasse, the French minister of foreign affairs, to Mr. Kruger as "France will in no case take the initiative, but would not oppose it when certain eventualities became known provided they are calculated to serve French interests."

The chancellor thereupon remarked that he could not have dealt with the situation better himself. Overtures to Mr. Kruger in Germany, he pointed out, would have displaced national relations and served no purpose of Mr. Kruger or of Germany.

Li's Secretary Arrested.

London, Dec. 11.—A special dispatch from Shanghai announced that Li Hung Chang's Manchu secretary, Yiko, was arrested by order of Field Marshal Count Von Waldersee on the charge of communicating with the Boxers.

Miss Margaret Louise Post Married.

New York, Dec. 11.—Miss Margaret Louise Post, daughter of Mrs. William Post, was married to J. Lawrence Van Alen, only son of James J. Van Alen and a grandson of the late William Astor. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother by Bishop Potter.

Postmaster Not Nominated.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate for postmasters for Pennsylvania: Edwin R. Baldrige, Hollidaysburg; Edgar J. Corwin, Belle Vernon.

TWO DIVORCES WERE GRANTED

Parties Live In Wellsville and One Woman Said She Supported Herself While

HER HUSBAND MADE $3 A DAY

The Other Told a Story of Very Extreme Cruelty to the Court.

HER HUSBAND BROKE DISHES

Lisbon, Dec. 11.—(Special.)—Mrs. Susan Given, of Wellsville, was granted a divorce in court last evening from Charles S. Given, together with the custody of their minor child.

The Givens were married 16 years ago in Steubenville, and Mrs. Given claimed that by the idleness and dissipation of the defendant, she was compelled to support herself and child. Given is a railroad engineer earning $3 per day.

Mrs. Sarah M. Smith, of Wellsville, who was six years ago married to James D. Smith, told a story of extreme cruelty to the court in support of her allegation for a divorce. The Smiths for a number of years lived in Toronto. She told a story of abuse on his part when he knocked her down and struck her with his fists. Last January Mrs. Smith gave birth to her last child, and at this time her husband refused to procure for her any medical aid. When the child was born it was so deformed that its life was short, and the witness stated on the stand that the attending physician had informed the family that the abusive treatment of Smith was responsible for the deformity and death of the infant. Mrs. Smith went to Empire on Easter to visit her parents and when she returned found her home deserted and her husband gone, together with the eldest child, a son of five years. She claimed that he broke all of her furniture and dishes before leaving.

Judge Hole gave her a divorce and the custody of their three-year-old daughter, while the son was allowed to remain with the husband.

FAVOR AN INCOME TAX

Democrats Advocate Such a Provision.

THE WAR REDUCTION TOO LOW.

Minority Members of the Ways and Means Say It Should Be Cut $70,000,000—Burdensome on Beer and Tobacco Interests—Blame Monopolies on Tariff.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The views of the minority members of the ways and means committee on the bill reducing war revenue axes about $40,000,000 was completed and made public. It is signed by the entire Democratic membership of the committee—Messrs. Richardson, of Tennessee; Swanson, of Virginia; McClellan, of New York; Newlands, of Nevada; Cooper, of Texas, and Underwood, of Alabama.

The report says that the minority are of opinion that the proposed reduction of revenue is too small and that the bill does not go far enough in relieving the people of the burdens imposed upon them for war purposes. The remaining taxes, says the report, are unnecessary and should be removed.

The minority takes issue with Secretary Gage's estimate of $26,000,000 surplus in 1902, and says that if congress observes proper economy in expenditures the surplus ought to be $100,000,000.

"Instead of taking off the sum of $40,000,000, as is proposed, we would go further and reduce taxation not less than $70,000,000.

"We believe that by a return to proper economy in appropriations a reduction greater than we advocate could be made, and we should at once enforce this economy. The war being over the war taxes should cease, and the train of extraordinary expenditures following the war should also terminate.

"We shall not, however, oppose the passage of the bill, for it gives some relief, but will endeavor to properly amend it.

"It has been proved beyond question by evidence before the industrial commission appointed by congress, that many of the powerful trusts that have an absolute monopoly of their business in this country and that exercise their power despotically and injuriously to the people largely owe their growth to the customs duties imposed in the Dingley tariff law, which prohibits foreign competition.

"By destroying in many cases all foreign competition this bill has made possible home combination with all of the evils of monopoly. We witness daily the gross injustice of these monopolies, created and fostered by the government, selling goods as they continually do to foreign consumers out of the same factory at a lower price than they sell the same goods to home consumers.

"We urgently insist that the present tariff laws should be modified so as to prevent this imposition upon our own citizens.

"We believe that a provision could and should be prepared which would accomplish the just ends sought in an income tax, yet escape an adverse decision of the supreme court of the United States such as was rendered against the income tax provided for in the Wilson law."

The report says that a reduction of $70,000,000 in taxation would permit the relief of the tobacco and beer producing interests, which have suffered from heavy war taxes and would enable the abolition of many vexatious duties and taxes that will be continued under the proposed legislation.

FAVORS THE BOUTELLE BILL.

Long Thinks His Services Deserve the Reward Proposed.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Secretary Long has written to Chairman Foss, of the house naval committee, relative to the proposed retiring of Representative Boutelle, of Maine, as a captain of the navy, in the course of which he said in part:

"If the reward proposed in the resolution, that is, the placing of a person not at the time on the active list of the navy upon the retired list can ever be appropriate, it would appear to be so in the present case. Mr. Boutelle served with distinction as an officer of the navy during the critical period of the Civil War. During his service as chairman of the committee on naval affairs his experience as a naval officer and extensive acquaintance with naval matters proved of great value in the upbuilding of the navy to which he untiringly devoted his energies and ability."

His secretary further along said: "In view of the precedents above given and others which might be cited, and in consideration of the exceptional features of the case, the department makes no objection to the legislation proposed by the joint resolution in question."

Appropriation Bill Passed House.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The first of the great supply bills, the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, was passed by the house in record time. The bill carries $24,496,308 and has 131 pages, but there was less than 10 minutes' debate upon it. Mr. Bingham, of Pennsylvania, who was in charge of the measure, tendered his thanks to the house for the confidence shown in the appropriation committee. It required about three hours for the clerk to read the bill.

Towne Was Worn In.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Hon. Charles A. Towne, the recently appointed successor to the late Senator Davis, of Minnesota, attended the session of the senate and took the oath of office. No business of importance was transacted in open session, the senate going into secret session on the Hay-Pauncefote treaty as soon as routine business had been concluded.

NO BENEFIT TO KRUGER.

German Chancellor Pointed Out Futility of Overtures—Tried to Prevent South African War.

Berlin, Dec. 11.—The imperial chancellor, Count Von Buelow, replying in the reichstag to a question on the subject of Mr. Kruger's failure to be received by Emperor William, said the government did all in its power to ward off war and left the two republics in no doubt as to the state of affairs in Europe and as to the German neutrality. When in 1899 the question of arbitration seemed not altogether excluded the government recommended it to Mr. Kruger. He thought the time had not yet come. Mr. Kruger later sought intervention, but his feelings were too highly inflamed for the Dutch and German governments. For the German government it was lost time to give advice. Germany was convinced that any step of a great power at that time would be critical and would have led to no result. "There was no use for us," said the chancellor, "to pinch our fingers between the door and the hinge." The chancellor added that when the suggestion of mediation was made to Great Britain by the United States in a quite gently worded inquiry it was rejected officially and categorically. Intervention might have led to war.

The chancellor described the reply of M. Delcasse, the French minister of foreign affairs, to Mr. Kruger as "France will in no case take the initiative, but would not oppose it when certain eventualities became known provided they are calculated to serve French interests."

The chancellor thereupon remarked that he could not have dealt with the situation better himself. Overtures to Mr. Kruger in Germany, he pointed out, would have displaced national relations and served no purpose of Mr. Kruger or of Germany.

London, Dec. 11.—The appeal court has dismissed the appeal of the Duke of Marlborough and has confirmed the decision of Judge Byrne in the chancery division of the high court of justice, which gave Lillian, Duchess of Marlborough (formerly Mrs. Louis Hamersley, of New York, and now Lady William Beresford), a jointure of £1,500 yearly.

Li's Secretary Arrested.

London, Dec. 11.—A special dispatch from Shanghai announced that Li Hung Chang's Manchu secretary, Yiko, was arrested by order of Field Marshal Count Von Waldersee on the charge of communicating with the Boxers.

Miss Margaret Louise Post Married.

New York, Dec. 11.—Miss Margaret Louise Post, daughter of Mrs. William Post, was married to J. Lawrence Van Alen, only son of James J. Van Alen and a grandson of the late William Astor. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother by Bishop Potter.

Postmaster Nominated.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate for postmasters for Pennsylvania: Edwin R. Baldrige, Hollidaysburg; Edgar J. Corwin, Bellefonte.

TWO DIVORCES WERE GRANTED

Parties Live In Wellsville and One Woman Said She Supported Herself While

HER HUSBAND MADE $3 A DAY

The Other Told a Story of Very Extreme Cruelty to the Court.

HER HUSBAND BROKE DISHES

Lisbon, Dec. 11.—(Special.)—Mrs. Susan Given, of Wellsville, was granted a divorce in court last evening from Charles S. Given, together with the custody of their minor child.

The Givens were married 16 years ago in Steubenville, and Mrs. Given claimed that by the idleness and dissipation of the defendant, she was compelled to support herself and child. Given is a railroad engineer earning $3 per day.

Mrs. Sarah M. Smith, of Wellsville, who was six years ago married to James D. Smith, told a story of extreme cruelty to the court in support of her allegation for a divorce. The Smiths for a number of years lived in Toronto. She told a story of abuse on his part when he knocked her down and struck her with his fists. Last January Mrs. Smith gave birth to her last child, and at this time her husband refused to procure for her any medical aid. When the child was born it was so deformed that its life was short, and the witness stated on the stand that the attending physician had informed the family that the abusive treatment of Smith was responsible for the deformity and death of the infant. Mrs. Smith went to Empire on Easter to visit her parents and when she returned found her home deserted and her husband gone, together with the eldest child, a son of five years. She claimed that he broke all of her furniture and dishes before leaving.

Judge Hole gave her a divorce and the custody of their three-year-old daughter, while the son was allowed to remain with the husband.

TO SAVE THE MASSES.

Churches to Be Awakened to Sad Conditions.

A BIG RELIGIOUS MOVEMENT.

Conference in New York—Plans For Extending Work to Entire Country Formed. Committees Appointed—Ball Temporary Chairman.

New York, Dec. 11.—A conference was held at the Young Men's Christian association, attended by clergymen and business men from New York and nearby large cities, for the purpose of planning for a big religious movement, founded upon the evangelical basis. It was the outcome of a general feeling shared by clergy and laymen interested in evangelical work that the churches should be awakened to the existing conditions of lethargy and indifference on the part of the great masses toward the word of God.

Plans for extending the movement to the entire country were perfected and committees appointed to facilitate them. William P. Hall was chosen temporary chairman of the conference. He was associated with the late Dwight L. Moody.

The headquarters of the movement will probably be in New York city, although this is not definitely decided. TO WIPE OUT POLYGAMY.

Congressman Ray Favors Constitutional Amendment—Also Uniform Laws For Marriage and Divorce.

Washington, Dec. 11.—In view of the movement for the suppression of polygamy and for uniform marriage and divorce laws, Chairman Ray, of the house committee on the judiciary, having charge of this legislation, has written a letter to those interested in the movement, saying in part:

"An amendment to the constitution merely prohibiting polygamy would amount to but little. An amendment allowing congress to pass laws punishing polygamy would apply to those localities where polygamy is practiced, that is, it would enable congress to pass laws prohibiting and punishing polygamy in Utah and one or two other localities where it is practiced, and allow prosecutions in the United States courts. Every state in the union has full power to prohibit and punish polygamy and every state has anti-polygamy laws. Utah has such a law. The main trouble is in the enforcement of it and gentlemen, including judges, who have appeared before this committee in favor of the proposed amendment, state that the main object is to give the United States courts jurisdiction and thus secure a better enforcement of the anti-polygamy laws. A very large number of our people, and many senators and representatives, feel that such an amendment is unnecessary, and I do not know what the fate of the proposition will be, but to the best of my ability I shall press a proposed amendment giving congress full power to enact uniform laws on the subject of marriage and divorce. I think that the laws of marriage ought to be uniform throughout the nation, and that the divorce laws ought to be uniform."

VOTE WAS AGAINST REVISION.

A Recount of Ballot Taken by the New York Presbytery.

New York, Dec. 11.—The New York presbytery held its regular monthly meeting. In the interval between that and the last meeting the vote on the revision of the confession of faith was recounted and it was found that the vote was not a tie, as was announced at that time, but stood 75 to 72 against the revision.

More Net Gains Than Losses—Movements In Some Stocks—Call Money Minimum—Not a Record.

New York, Dec. 11.—The effect of the doubtful outlook in the money market was clear Monday in the small volume of business in stocks. The money market showed no sign of stringency and no liquidation was precipitated. In fact, the buying overbore the selling and there were more net gains than losses as a result of the day's operations. The buying seemed to come from uncovered shorts, judging from the fact that these stocks which have suffered most from recent depression were in foremost demand Monday. This was notably true of the steel group, led by Tennessee Coal, which has been the object of a prolonged raid by the bears, at an expense of 20 points in the value of the stock. A rally of 4½ points at the extreme high point Monday therefore seems moderate. Other members of the steel group moved in sympathy and gained upward of a point all around, with the exception of Steel and Wire. The latter stock was under pressure. While it recovered at one time to above Saturday's level it closed weak and effected the whole group. Meetings of the directors both of the Tennessee Coal company and the Steel and Wire company were watched for developments, but there were none of importance so far as the public was informed. No action was taken on the dividend by the Tennessee company to refute the recent rumors that it would be passed. The Steel and Wire directors ordered the payment of the last installment of the year's dividend declared last year. The strength of Sugar was attributed to reports of an over-sold condition in the trade indicated in an advance in the selling price of refined sugars by the independent refiners. Other industrial stocks showed sharp recoveries, with no news to explain the movement, beyond the obvious fact that they have been recently sold short by professional operators. The movement in the railroad list seemed to be due to the same cause, but was much narrower. There was no evidence of the large organized buying at any point, such as has been an occasional feature of the market for some time past. The Erie stocks were much less active, although the first preferred and second preferred were at one time advanced 1¼ and 1½ respectively. The Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis stocks rose 3¼ each on a light demand, which, however, brought out very little stock.

The minimum rate for call money was advanced to 5 per cent and ruled from that to 6 per cent.

REV. STUART GOES FREE.

Prosecution Admitted That No Murder Case Could Be Made Out Against Him.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 11.—Rev. D. E. Stuart, the Baptist minister of Wyoming, this county, who was discharged by Judge Woodward last week on habeas corpus proceedings following the death of his wife under suspicious circumstances, and who was immediately re-arrested on complaint of his wife's father, was again discharged from custody. James Harris, Mrs. Stuart's father, swore out a warrant charging Mr. Stuart with being responsible for the death of Mrs. Stuart.

Drs. Beckwith and Whitney testified that there were no evidences of a criminal operation. Dr. Whitney who made the post mortem examination, testified that there were traces of carbolic acid poisoning in the woman's mouth and throat and that death was due to that cause.

Mrs. John Johns, with whom Minister Stuart and his wife boarded in Plymouth, said Stuart called to the household that his wife had taken something. He told Mrs. Johns to prepare an antidote quick. This was done and the clergyman did all in his power to make his wife swallow, but she was unconscious, and the antidote could not be administered. She died in a few minutes.

Mrs. Evan Griffiths and other neighbors testified to Rev. Stuart's kindness to his wife. At this point P. M. Thornton, who represented the prosecution, said it was plain that no case could be made against the defendant, and he asked for his dismissal, which was done.

The minister was then heartily congratulated by his friends.

TO SAVE THE MASSES.

Churches to Be Awakened to Sad Conditions.

A BIG RELIGIOUS MOVEMENT.

Conference in New York—Plans For Extending Work to Entire Country Formed. Committees Appointed—Ball Temporary Chairman.

New York, Dec. 11.—A conference was held at the Young Men's Christian association, attended by clergymen and business men from New York and nearly large cities, for the purpose of planning for a big religious movement, founded upon the evangelical basis. It was the outcome of a general feeling shared by clergy and laymen interested in evangelical work that the "churches should be awakened to the existing conditions of lethargy and indifference on the part of the great masses toward the word of God."

Plans for extending the movement to the entire country were perfected and committees appointed to facilitate them. William P. Hall was chosen temporary chairman of the conference. He was associated with the late Dwight L. Moody.

The headquarters of the movement will probably be in New York city, although this is not definitely decided. This question will be left to the central committee, which held a meeting after the conference. It was decided to prepare a circular outlining the scheme sent to the secretaries of church societies in every city and town in the United States.

TO SAVE THE MASSES.

Churches to Be Awakened to Sad Conditions.

A BIG RELIGIOUS MOVEMENT.

Conference in New York—Plans For Extending Work to Entire Country Formed. Committees Appointed—Ball Temporary Chairman.

New York, Dec. 11.—A conference was held at the Young Men's Christian association, attended by clergymen and business men from New York and nearby large cities, for the purpose of planning for a big religious movement, founded upon the evangelical basis. It was the outcome of a general feeling shared by clergy and laymen interested in evangelical work that the "churches should be awakened to the existing conditions of lethargy and indifference on the part of the great masses toward the word of God."

Plans for extending the movement to the entire country were perfected and committees appointed to facilitate them. William P. Hall was chosen temporary chairman of the conference. He was associated with the late Dwight L. Moody.

The headquarters of the movement will probably be in New York city, although this is not definitely decided. This question will be left to the central committee, which held a meeting after the conference. It was decided to prepare a circular outlining the scheme sent to the secretaries of church societies in every city and town in the United States.

INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM.

American Federation Convention Declared For It—Other Resolutions Adopted.

Louisville, Dec. 11.—When the convention of the Federation of Labor met the resolutions committee submitted its report. The first resolution recommended was one reaffirming the federation's favorable position on the initiative and referendum. The resolution was adopted by the convention by a vote of 82 to 56, after considerable debate.

In rapid succession resolutions were recommended and adopted requesting passage of a bill for the higher education of the blind; in favor of an eight-hour bill for all post-office employees, to be introduced at the coming session of congress, and in favor of municipal ownership of public utilities. Other resolutions were also considered and some adopted.

ANOTHER COUNCILMAN AGREED.

Decided to Resign, Pay $200 to Charity Etc., at Scranton, Pa.

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 11.—Another accused councilman has agreed to subscribe to the conditions imposed by the Municipal league and thereby escape prosecution for bribery. He is Selectman Peter F. McCann, of the Fourteenth ward. He agrees to resign at the next meeting of councils, sign a paper to the effect that he will not seek or accept public office for a term of five years and contribute $200 to a charity fund.

Mr. McCann was one of the four councilmen last arrested. The other three, Messrs. Melvin, James and Williams, are to stand trial, the compromise offer having closed Monday.

York, Pa., Dec. 11.—A telegram received here from Ohio, S. C., announces the death at that place of Bishop C. C. Petty, of the A. M. E. Zion church. Rev. Petty was a presiding elder in Pennsylvania for a period of about four years, but left for South Carolina last May, where he became a bishop.

TO WIPE OUT POLYGAMY.

Congressman Ray Favors Constitutional Amendment—Also Uniform Laws For Marriage and Divorce.

Washington, Dec. 11.—In view of the movement for the suppression of polygamy and for uniform marriage and divorce laws, Chairman Ray, of the house committee on the judiciary, having charge of this legislation, has written a letter to those interested in the movement, saying in part:

"An amendment to the constitution merely prohibiting polygamy would amount to but little. An amendment allowing congress to pass laws punishing polygamy would apply to those localities where polygamy is practiced, that is, it would enable congress to pass laws prohibiting and punishing polygamy in Utah and one or two other localities where it is practiced, and allow prosecutions in the United States courts. Every state in the union has full power to prohibit and punish polygamy and every state has anti-polygamy laws. Utah has such a law. The main trouble is in the enforcement of it and gentlemen, including judges, who have appeared before this committee in favor of the proposed amendment, state that the main object is to give the United States courts jurisdiction and thus secure a better enforcement of the anti-polygamy laws. A very large number of our people, and many senators and representatives, feel that such an amendment is unnecessary, and I do not know what the fate of the proposition will be, but to the best of my ability I shall press a proposed amendment giving congress full power to enact uniform laws on the subject of marriage and divorce. I think that the laws of marriage ought to be uniform throughout the nation, and that the divorce laws ought to be uniform."

VOTE WAS AGAINST REVISION.

A Recount of Ballot Taken by the New York Presbytery.

New York, Dec. 11.—The New York presbytery held its regular monthly meeting. In the interval between that and the last meeting the vote on the revision of the confession of faith was recounted and it was found that the vote was not a tie, as was announced at that time, but stood 75 to 72 against the revision.

Enter Jacob Snyder Dead.

Waynesboro, Pa., Dec. 11.—Elder Jacob Snyder, of the German Baptist church, died suddenly at his home in this city. Death was due to heart failure. He was 75 years old.

Ree's Condition Reported Favorable.

New York, Dec. 11.—At St. Luk's hospital it was reported that the condition of Roland Ree, the actor, was favorable.

More Net Gains Than Losses—Movements in Some Stocks—Call Money Minimum Rate—Advances.

New York, Dec. 11.—The effect of the doubtful outlook in the money market was clear Monday in the small volume of business in stocks. The money market showed no sign of stringency and no liquidation was precipitated. In fact, the buying overbore the selling and there were more net gains than losses as a result of the day's operations. The buying seemed to come from uncovered shorts, judging from the fact that those stocks which have suffered most from recent depression were in foremost demand Monday. This was notably true of the steel group, led by Tennessee Coal, which has been the object of a prolonged raid by the bears, at an expense of 20 points in the value of the stock. A rally of 4½ points at the extreme high point Monday therefore seems moderate. Other members of the steel group moved in sympathy and gained upwards of a point all around, with the exception of Steel and Wire. The latter stock was under pressure. While it recovered at one time to above Saturday's level it closed weak and effect of the whole group. Meetings of the directors both of the Tennessee Coal company and the Steel and Wire company were watched for developments, but there were none of importance so far as the public was informed. No action was taken on the dividend by the Tennessee company to refute the recent rumors that it would be passed. The Steel and Wire directors ordered the payment of the last installment of the year's dividend declared last year. The strength of Sugar was attributed to reports of an over-sold condition in the trade indicated in an advance in the selling price of refined sugars by the independent refiners. Other industrial stocks showed sharp recoveries, with no news to explain the movement, beyond the obvious fact that they have been recently sold short by professional operators. The movement in the railroad list seemed to be due to the same cause, but was much narrower. There was no evidence of the large organized buying at any point, such as has been an occasional feature of the market for some time past. The Erie stocks were much less active, although the first preferred and second preferred were at one time advanced 1¼ and 1½ respectively. The Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis stocks rose 3¼ each on a light demand, which, however, brought out very little stock.

The minimum rate for call money was advanced to 5 per cent and ruled from that to 6 per cent.

REV. STUART GOES FREE.

Prosecution Admitted That No Murder Case Could Be Made Out Against Him.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 11.—Rev. D. E. Stuart, the Baptist minister of Wyoming, this county, who was discharged by Judge Woodward last week on habeas corpus proceedings following the death of his wife under suspicious circumstances, and who was immediately re-arrested on complaint of his wife's father, was again discharged from custody. James Harris, Mrs. Stuart's father, swore out a warrant charging Mr. Stuart with being responsible for the death of Mrs. Stuart.

Drs. Beckwith and Whitney testified that there were no evidences of a criminal operation. Dr. Whitney who made the post mortem examination, testified that there were traces of carbolic acid poisoning in the woman's mouth and throat and that death was due to that cause.

Mrs. John Johns, with whom Minister Stuart and his wife boarded in Plymouth, said Stuart called to the household that his wife had taken something. He told Ms. Johns to prepare an antidote quick. This was done and the clergyman did all in his power to make his wife swallow, but she was unconscious, and the antidote could not be administered. She died in a few minutes.

Mrs. Evan Griffiths and other neighbors testified to Rev. Stuart's kindness to his wife. At this point P. M. Thornton, who represented the prosecution, said it was plain that no case could be made against the defendant, and he asked for his dismissal, which was done.

The minister was then heartily congratulated by his friends.

"How do you know I was never here before?" asked the American tourist.

"This book is for a friend of mine who is using your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and I cannot praise your medicine too highly. I was in business in Baltimore and had rheumatism for three months; couldn't walk at all. I tried the best doctors I could get, but they did me no good. I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it cured me sound. I came home to Sharpsburg, and there were three cases of different diseases. I advised the patients to use Dr. Pierce's medicines, which they did, and all were cured."

WE MUST REPEAT

When Everybody in East Liverpool Tells the Same Story.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders and the troubles of those whose urinary organism is wrong in its action. That they do this is so easy to prove that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case: Mr. P. J. Green, veterinary surgeon, says: "When attending a sick horse belonging to Mr. G. H. Gardner, of 168 Jackson street, he remarked to me that the horse seemed to be in pain. I replied that I was the sicker of the two, as I could at that time scarcely straighten up with my back from lameness, weakness and severe pains. He asked me what my symptoms were and I explained to him that I had suffered for a number of years from my kidneys, that I had attacks at times when nothing helped me, and it was agony to get around, but that I could not endure idleness. The secretions from the kidneys were very high colored and acidulous; that I had spells of dizziness when I could see black specks floating before my eyes and felt generally broken up. He looked up and said he had the very thing I needed to cure me in his house—Doan's Kidney Pills. He went into the house and brought me eight pills. I took them with me and I used them two at a dose. The effect was astonishing. I felt it almost at once and went to the W. & W. pharmacy and bought a box and took them. The encouragement held out to me by the first eight pills was not mythical, as by their continued use the improvement continued, and I consider no expression of praise too strong for Doan's Kidney Pills, in short they are ne plus ultra."

WE MUST REPEAT

When Everybody in East Liverpool Tells the Same Story.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders and the troubles of those whose urinary organism is wrong in its action. That they do this is so easy to prove that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case: Mr. P. J. Green, veterinary surgeon, says: "When attending a sick horse belonging to Mr. G. H. Gardner, of 168 Jackson street, he remarked to me that the horse seemed to be in pain. I replied that I was the sicker of the two, as I could at that time scarcely straighten up with my back from lameness, weakness and severe pains. He asked me what my symptoms were and I explained to him that I had suffered for a number of years from my kidneys, that I had attacks at times when nothing helped me, and it was agony to get around, but that I could not endure idleness. The secretions from the kidneys were very high colored and acidulous; that I had spells of dizziness when I could see black specks floating before my eyes and felt generally broken up. He looked up and said he had the very thing I needed to cure me in his house—Doan's Kidney Pills. He went into the house and brought me eight pills. I took them with me and I used them two at a dose. The effect was astonishing. I felt it almost at once and went to the W. & W. pharmacy and bought a box and took them. The encouragement held out to me by the first eight pills was not mythical, as by their continued use the improvement continued, and I consider no expression of praise too strong for Doan's Kidney Pills, in short they are ne plus ultra."

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

16TH YEAR. NO. 156.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1900.

TWO CENTS

TOO MUCH SMOKE IS A NUISANCE

Board of Education Passed a Resolution Last Night and Instructed the Solicitor

TO TAKE NECESSARY STEPS

To Compel the Owners of a Small Pottery Near the Central Building

TO ABATE NUISANCE AT ONCE

The board of education met in regular session in the directors' room, Central building, last evening, with President Vodrey, Clerk Hill and Members Taggart and Murphy present. Dr. Taggart opened the meeting by reading a scripture lesson and offering a short prayer, after which the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

A matter which has been much discussed not only by the board of education, but by the public generally, was brought before the meeting by Clerk Hill in the form of a resolution and is as follows:

"Whereas, The small pottery situated upon the south part of lot No. 19, in the city of East Liverpool, by noxious, noisome, offensive exhalations of smoke and gas from its kiln and heater stack is injurious to the health and comfort of the pupils and teachers in the public school building, located on Fourth street in said city, and has caused and is causing irreparable damage to said public school building; therefore be it

"Resolved, By the board of education of the city of East Liverpool, that the smoke and gases emitted by the kiln and boiler stack of the pottery on the south of lot No. 19, in the city of East Liverpool, is a nuisance and should be abated, and the city solicitor, ex-officio attorney for the board of education of East Liverpool, is hereby instructed to institute whatever legal proceedings may be necessary to abate such nuisance."

Mr. Hill moved the adoption of the resolution and the roll call showed all present to be in favor of its passage.

Superintendent Rayman reported the removal of Miss Gladden from the Pleasant Heights building to a position at the Helana building, East End. To fill the vacancy Prof. Rayman suggested the name of Miss Pearl Grafton, a last year's graduate, who has been a substitute teacher since the beginning of the present term.

Some discussion took place as to the wages this teacher should receive, and it was finally decided to pay $35 per month, since the young lady would be required to pay her passage to and from the Pleasant Heights school.

The superintendent explained his motive for ordering the East End school closed on Monday, and after some little discussion the matter was left in his hands. The superintendent will order a resumption in that part of the city as soon as he may deem it proper.

Only one bid was received for the furnishing of hose for the Helana building, that of the Eagle Hardware company. It was thought by the board that their bid, $54 74, for 250 feet of hose was as cheap as it could be purchased anywhere, and it was decided to accept their proposition. This firm will also furnish two fire extinguishers for use at the Helana building. One will be placed on each of the two floors of the building.

Clerk Hill then read the following bills, which were ordered paid:

Robert Hall, labor.....	$14 33
Robert Hall, coal.....	20 10
Watson & Sloan, supplies.....	60
Mrs. Finley Cooley, labor.....	9 00
Ft. Pitt Gas Co., gas.....	84 75
D. Appleton & Co., books.....	6 00
Adams Express Co., express- age	1 50
J. T. Smith Lumber Co., cement	1 20
Pennsylvania Co., freight	5 10
W. H. Adams, supplies	3 00
T. A. Nagle, plumbing	1 76
Star Bargain, supplies	2 40
Kinsey Plumbing Co., plumb- ing	163 73
Thomas Harsha, coal	12 00
G. R. Pattison, clocks	77 00
H. R. Hill, rent	24 00
J. N. George, labor	37 00
Eagle Hardware Co.....	25 37

After the meeting had adjourned the members retired to the laboratory at the invitation of Prof. Rayman to view the new Croal apparatus for physical experiments recently purchased, and all pronounced it a valuable acquisition to that department of educational work.

DAM IS NEEDED.

EAST LIVERPOOL CITIZENS WANT
DAM NO. 8 BUILT.

Telegrams Were Sent to Hon. B. B. Dovenor to Ask Him to Use His Influence.

The citizens of East Liverpool want dam No. 8 built in the Ohio and they want it bad, and they will leave no stone unturned until the dam graces the river at Walker's.

Every person in the city is interested and now that Congressman J. J. Gill has taken such an active interest in the improving of the Ohio the citizens here feel that much can be accomplished with the strong support the movement will be given by Hon. R. W. Tayler, who will look after the interests of this city and will no doubt have Gill as a co-worker.

Congressman B. B. Dovenor, of West Virginia, is another man that is interested in the improving of the Ohio, and today some 30 or 40 telegrams were sent him. A copy of one of the telegrams is given. They were all along the same line and express very forcibly the interest the people here in having the dam built as soon as possible.

The copy of the telegram is as follows:

"East Liverpool, Dec. 11.
"Hon. B. B. Dovenor, M. C., Washington, D. C.

"Our loss by the low water every year cannot be calculated, this year lasting six months. Manufacturers, business men and residents of the entire valley suffered coal famine and excessive freight rates. The construction of dam 8 will relieve us and cause general rejoicing. Kindly lend your influence."

A LETTER FROM JOSEPH HEWITT

It Clears Up the Mystery In Regard to the Child Over Which

THERE HAS BEEN TROUBLE

Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes Took His Sister From the Chell Union Workhouse.

HE WILL TAKE HER TO ENGLAND

Mrs. Vincent, with whom little Frances Hewitt has been staying since she left Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes, has at last succeeded in getting some trace of the little girl's relatives and has received a letter from Joseph Hewitt, a brother of the girl.

The letter is as follows:

"Nov 29, 1900.

"From Joseph Hewitt, No. 9 Mayo street, Stoke-on-Trent, Staffordshire, England.

"Dear Madam—Just a few lines to you about my sister, Fanny Hewitt, who was taken from Chell Union Workhouse by Mrs. Barnes two years and six months ago. As near as I can tell, I only saw her twice while then I had lost all trace of her until

she was with Mrs. Barnes and since we had a letter from Fanny. The letter was sent to her brother George at Cobridge. We wrote several letters to her after that, but never received an answer. We then forwarded Fanny's address to my sister Sarah at Manchester, who wrote to her with the result that you got the letter and sent a reply to my sister, Sarah Hewitt, now Mrs. Anderson.

"The letter you sent to her was forwarded to me on the 28th day of November. If you know where Mrs. Barnes is you can tell her she can thank her lucky stars she was not in England when she was ill-treating her or I should have got her 12 months' imprisonment. Should Mrs. Barnes return to England she will be prosecuted by the Burslem board of guardians for neglecting Fanny. I am very glad you put in a complaint about it, and I can hardly find words to thank you for your kindness to Fanny.

"Fanny Hewitt was born at Burslem on the 8th day of March, 1888, in the county of Staffordshire. Her father's name was Joseph Hewitt and her mother's maiden name was Fanny Wood. Her mother and father were married at Leeds church in Yorkshire. Fanny's mother's brothers all live in Manchester. She used to live with her Uncle Jack before she went to the workhouse. Fanny's mother died on the 8th day of April, 1893, and her father died on the 22d day of February, 1894. Fanny was living with her Uncle Jack at the same time and her Aunt Lizzie brought her to the funeral. Twelve months afterward she was put in a home at Manchester with her brother George and was sent from there to the Chell workhouse, where she remained until she was fetched out by Mrs. Barnes. Her brother George was fetched out of the workhouse six months before Fanny by a man named Garner, and is still with him.

"I can fully prove to you that Mrs. Anderson is Fanny's sister, and if you do not believe me you can write to 'Relieving Officer, Wolstanton, and Burslem Guardians' office, Burslem, Staffordshire, England.'

"They will tell you all the particulars, as they were responsible for her when she was in England. It is no use writing to the mayor, as he has nothing to do with it. You must write to the address I have put down for you. When you have proved that we are her brothers and sisters I will find some means to have her brought to England. It is rather hard, you know, to take her from you, but it is harder for us, because we have only seen her twice for nearly eight years.

"Fanny's brothers and sisters names are: George Hewitt, aged 15 years; Joseph Hewitt, aged 17 years; Mrs. Sarah Anderson, aged 21 years.

"I must conclude with love for your kindness to her and I thank you very much, and I am sure the others will do the same.

"I remain yours very truly, Fanny Hewitt's eldest brother,

"JOSEPH HEWITT."

The letter closes with a "note for Fanny," which is as follows:

"My Dear Sister—Just a few lines to you to say that I am very pleased that we have found where you are, as we have inquired all over for you for nearly 12 months. I am very glad some one has taken you, but Sarah wants you to live with her, as she has not seen you for four years. I send my best love to you and I am glad you have left Mrs. Barnes. You will receive a letter from Sarah and George in a few days. I have no more to say, from your brother Joe. If you have got to be fetched I will try and fetch you. Good night and God bless you, with love for all."

The mention of the Chell Union Workhouse will be better understood when it is known that it is the same as an infirmary in this country.

THEY WANT GAS.

Infirmary Directors Are Contemplating Putting Down a Well on the County Farm.

Lisbon, Dec. 11.—(Special.)—The infirmary directors are contemplating drilling for gas on the infirmary farm near the boiler house. The infirmary is within two miles of the Fink farm, where a good gas vein was found some weeks ago.

The directors claim that it costs the county from $1,200 to $1,500 per year for light and fuel, and that if they could get enough gas to supply the county could save $1,000 per year.

In case this deal drops through the directors may put in an electrical plant that will both heat and furnish light.

Cleveland is the Battleground of the Big Telephone War.

The Two Men of the Head of the Rival Systems in This City, Judge J. M. Thomas and Charles J. Glidden, Have Had Interesting Careers.

Cleveland Leader.

Cleveland is being made the battleground for one of the most interesting skirmishes of the great telephone war that is being waged all over the country. The battle is between the Bell and the non-Bell, or independent telephone companies. Cleveland is one of the largest cities in which the rivals have come into contact with each other.

The generals on both sides of the local fight are interesting men, and, although neither of them is a Cleveland, both are well known here, for they come to this city often to watch and direct the progress of the battle. Both are men whose careers have been interesting and both are among the most prominent figures in the national telephone war, of which the Cleveland skirmish is but a part.

Charles J. Glidden is older in the telephone business, having been one of its pioneers, and having been at the head of the company controlling the Bell interests in Cleveland for years before the independent company now fighting the older one was in existence. Judge James Milton Thomas, of Chillicothe, is almost equally prominent in the independent ranks, however, although he is a comparatively newcomer in the telephone business. He took up the telephone business when the independent companies were formed to fight the Bell interests. He is now president of the Independent Telephone Association of the United States, and also general manager of the United States Telephone company of Cleveland. He has practically deserted the practice of law for the direction of the independent telephone interests.

Mr. Glidden was born in Lowell, Mass., in 1857, and that city is still his home. Mr. Thomas was born in Ross county, this state, in 1858, and is a descendant of Samuel Thomas, who came to America in the Mayflower. Mr. Thomas is a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan university and Mr. Glidden is a graduate from the suit of a messenger boy to the place of president of one of the richest telephone corporations in the country, and he is also talked of as a probability for the presidency of the American Bell Telephone company, the parent company of all the enormous Bell telephone interests. The presidency is vacant because of the death of President Hudson. As it is, he is at the head of what is said to be the greatest operating telephone corporation in the country, the Erie Telephone and Telegraph company, of which the Bell system in Cleveland is a part.

When Mr. Glidden was 14 years old he went to work as a messenger boy for the old Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph company, so that he has been in the electrical communication business almost all his life. He became manager of a branch office of the telegraph company two years later, and when the establishment of the telephone as a commercial enterprise began in 1877, he was a canvasser for the original telephone company in Lowell. Later he became secretary and treasurer of the Erie company, and progressed through the official grades to the presidency, to which he was elected two years ago. Not long ago it was reported that this company had been sold to the group of New York capitalists of which ex-Secretary William C. Whitney is the center, but Mr. Glidden remains at the head of the company. The same capitalists are interested in the independent telephone schemes themselves, and this caused a situation that has been puzzling outsiders, who are interested in the telephone battle, ever since the announcement was made.

Judge Thomas' rise in the telephone world has been equally brilliant. One of the most important, perhaps the most important, independent or non-Bell telephone corporations outside of New York is the United States Telephone company, of this city, the company of which Judge Thomas is general manager. It controls the independent long distance business of the state, and through companies with which it has working alliances, it extends all over the middle west, and through present traffic arrangements with the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Telephone company, now connects its territory with practically the whole of the east that has non-Bell systems developed.

Judge Thomas has been a lawyer for 16 years, and in 1893 was elected judge of the probate court of his county. His duties as general manager of the United States Telephone company bring him to this city frequently, and it was to some extent because of his prominence in the affairs of this company that he was elected president of the Independent Telephone Association of the United States.

The local Cuyahoga Telephone company is the Cleveland factor of the United States company so far as local business is concerned, the United States being the long distance company that connects the local companies throughout its territory with the Cleveland exchange.

BOARD OF HEALTH HELD A SESSION

Health Officer Ogden Spoke of the Diphtheria In the East End and Said

THE PEOPLE WERE EXCITED

Stated That There Was No Cause
For Alarm and Disease Was Not Epidemic.

CASES PROPERLY QUARANTINED

The board of health held a special session at city hall last evening.

In the absence of Mayor Davidson, Haines was selected to act as presiding officer.

After the minutes had been read and approved and the report of Health Officer Ogden ordered filed, a bill from J. M. Aten for $70, claimed due for the use of his land as a city dump was presented.

The bill called for the use of the land from December 14 to July 14 at $10 per month. Inasmuch as Mr. Aten had been notified in April that the board would need his land no longer the bill was cut down to $50, and made to read from December 14 to May 14.

Health Officer Ogden was given authority to purchase a gas generator for the purpose of fumigating.

Health Officer Ogden then brought up the East End diphtheria cases and stated that there was an unnecessary

scare in that part of the city; that there was no cause for alarm whatever and that at the present time there were only three cases in the East End and they had all been properly quarantined. He said that when a case of contagious disease was reported and the head of the house was at work, they always gave him the privilege of going home and staying there or he had to keep out of the house until the patient had recovered.

The condition of Lake's run in the East End was discussed and the board members were agreed that the run should be sewer, but how to get it done is another question, as the sewer could not empty into the river at East End on account of the fact that the pump house is too close.

Dr. Mowen said all the cases of diphtheria were along this run.

Resolutions were passed declaring nuisances on the Costello property, Sixth street, and at the Dresden pottery.

The resolution describes the nuisances and gives the property owners 10 days in which to abate the same.

The members of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church of East Liverpool met yesterday afternoon at the home residence of Mr. S. J. Cripps, Jackson street, where they had an informal talk with Miss Scott, representing the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Educational Society of the Methodist Episcopal church. Miss Scott gave a pleasing and instructive talk along the line of her personal experience with the colored people and the poor whites of the southland, after which the ladies of our local society agreed to give the sum of twenty-five dollars for the purpose of furnishing a room in the school for colored people at Meridian, Mississippi. The ladies deserve warm commendation for their good work in this particular.

EAST END.

NOT A CASE.

SANITARY OFFICER BURGESS WAS IN EAST END TODAY.

Schools Are Still Closed, But Will Probably be Reopened in the Morning.

No new cases of diphtheria have developed in East End and everything looks favorable for a speedy stamping out of the disease in that section.

Sanitary Officer Burgess was in the suburb this morning looking after the cases now under quarantine and investigating where others have been said to be afflicted with diphtheria.

In the family of Elmer Stevenson there was reported to be a bad case, but when the matter was looked into there was found to be no occasion for alarm. This was also true in another case on Virginia avenue.

Of the three parties now afflicted but one, little Edith Baird, is in a serious condition. The cases in the Haney and Stemm families are doing nicely, the former not at any time being serious.

The disease has practically left Edith Baird, but the heart action is bad and it may be that she will not recover, although the physicians in attendance states if this can be kept up the little one will recover.

There is no school in East End today, although the teachers were instructed to report for duty in the morning, and it is likely that the schools will be opened at that time, provided there is no further spread of the disease during the day.

A Bridge Agent Here.

An agent of the Penn Bridge company, of Beaver Falls, arrived in East End this morning, with the intention of starting the iron work on the new county bridge at Dry run. He was somewhat surprised to learn that none of the stone work had been done.

The iron arrived in the East End yesterday, but the work will be delayed for some time.

Since it has been learned that the bridge is to be an iron girder structure a story has been in circulation to the effect that the street car company are in the deal along with the county commissioners, although the latter are all that were recognized in the deal.

On account of the kind of bridge that will be built it is now thought the trolley system will be extended in that direction, otherwise a much less expensive structure could have been made to answer the purpose.

Want a Street Opened.

East End people are wondering when, if ever, the thoroughfare known as Virginia avenue will be opened to St George street.

The street is at present almost useless as an outlet, besides in case of fire it would be impossible to reach a great many residences in the upper part of town.

Several months ago Solicitor Gaston was instructed by council to negotiate with the Pennsylvania Railroad company looking to the opening of the thoroughfare, and the people who use the street are somewhat anxious to know what has been done with the matter.

Among the Sick.

Miss Mary Earl, an employee of the American Steam laundry, was off duty yesterday owing to illness.

Austin Van Fossen has been slightly ill for several days, and this morning was compelled to quit work and return to his home down town.

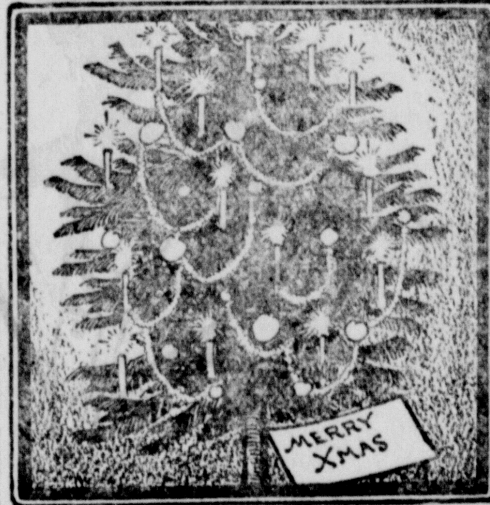

Were Married Last Week.

Albert Arnold and Miss Nettie Hughes, two well known East End young people, were united in marriage last week at the home of the bride's parents, near Ralston Crossing.

Quicksilver.

The ore from which quicksilver is obtained is a brilliant red rock known as cinnabar. When of high purity, it is actually vermilion in color. Cinnabar is the original source of the pigment known commercially as vermilion. It is a compound of sulphur and quicksilver, and in order to separate the latter from the sulphur the rock is roasted. Passing off in the form of a gas, the mercury is afterward condensed and flows out in a fine stream, like a continuous pencil of molten silver.

The discovery of the famous California mines came about in an odd sort of way by observation of the vermilion paint with which certain Indians in that part of the country frescoed their bodies. It was ascertained where they got the pigment, and thus were revealed the rich deposits which subsequently became of such commercial importance. Like gold and silver, mercury is occasionally found in a native or pure state. Sometimes the miner's pick penetrates a cavity that contains a cupful or more of the elusive and beautiful fluid.

Miners suffer much from the poisonous effects of the quicksilver fumes. Extreme cleanliness is the best safeguard for workers in this dangerous occupation. Use is also made of a sort of lemonade which serves to a certain extent as an antidote, a strong acid taking the place of lemon juice in the composition of the drink.—Saturday Evening Post.

Cheaper Than a Funeral.

In a certain North Dakota town there are two physicians, one with a long record of cures and the other popularly rated as "no good."

The favored doctor found his services in great request, but as payment was not always forthcoming he made a rule that a certain class of his patients should pay in advance.

One winter's night he was roused by two farmers from a hamlet ten miles away, the wife of one of whom was seriously ill. He told them to go to the other doctor, but they refused, saying they would prefer his services. "Very well," replied the medico. "In that case my fee is $10, the money to be paid now."

The men remonstrated, but the doctor was obdurate and shut down his window. He waited, however, to hear what they would say. "Well, what will we do now?" asked the farmer whose wife was ill. And the reply that was given must have been a gratifying as it was amusing to the listening doctor. It was: "I think you would better give it. The funeral would cost you more."

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1900.

THE GIRL QUESTION.

The "domestic" question has become harder to solve than the Chinese conundrum. It seems almost impossible to secure a good girl for general housework. The inclination seems to be to work in the pottery or to reach a berth as saleslady. All over our city comes the cry: "What shall we do for girls?" If some second Solomon will step into the breach and solve this vexed riddle, he will be called "blessed" among men by troubled wives and heads of households.

Brown's Buttered Watermelon.

Colonel George W. Anderson, a man of splendid genius and rare oratorical gifts, was stumping for Greeley and Brown down in southwest Missouri. One night in the midst of his speech an old fellow arose in the back of the house and said:

"Colonel Anderson, is it true that Governor Brown was so drunk at that Yale alumni dinner that he buttered his watermelon?"

Colonel Anderson reared back on his pastern joints, straightened himself to his 6 feet 2 and with a lion's roar answered:

"Yes, it is true that Governor Brown buttered his watermelon at the Yale alumni dinner, and I am happy to inform you that that is the only way in which watermelons are eaten in polite society."

Anderson's happy retort was greeted with a shout of laughter and a roar of applause by his auditors. His interrogator sat down discomfited, and that was the last ever heard of the story of the buttered watermelon—all of which goes to demonstrate the value of Danton's famous motto: "L'audace! L'audace! Toujours l'audace!"

Colonel Anderson was a wonderful stumper. He was most emphatically a rough diamond. In the rough and tumble, catch-as-you-can style of debating he never had a superior in Missouri, which is saying a great deal. He was an adept in the use of every species of oratorical weapon.—Champ Clark in Saturday Evening Post.

A Lucid Decision.

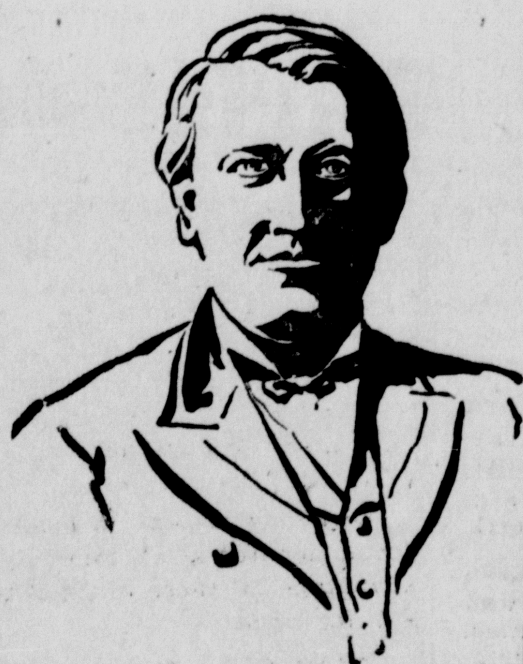

A correspondent, referring to a recent article in Law Notes on "The Grammar of the Courts," calls attention to the following lucid decision of Sir John Taylor Coleridge in the case of Turley against Thomas, 8 C. and P. 103, 34 E. C. L. 312: "It has been suggested as a doubt by the learned counsel for the defendant whether the rule of the road applies to saddle horses or only to carriages. Now I have no doubt that it does."—Law Notes.

An Accident.

Little Bessie having been punished for misbehavior, slunk to the other end of the room, crying. Her mother turned to view her repentance, but found her engaged in making faces at her.

"Why, Bessie," said her mother, "how can you do so?"

"Oh, mamma," answered the little girl, "I was trying to smile at you, but my face slipped."—London Answers.

VERY SKILLFUL DENTISTRY

A Law Suit Places the Defendant
In a Very Peculiar Position.

HIS WITNESSES SPEAK OUT

As Experts and Pronounce the
Work of the Plaintiff as First Class In Every Detail.

A FEATHER IN DR. LITTLE'S CAP

Some time since, Dr. J. M. Little, the well known, popular and skillful dentist, located in the W. L. Thompson block, Market street, had occasion to do a fine piece of bridge work for one of our townsmen. In due time payment was made by said defendant, with the exception of a balance of ten dollars, and this he refused to pay, claiming that the work was not satisfactory and not in accordance with the skilled work done by experts in this age of advanced dentistry.

Dr. Little was loath to enter suit on the account, and endeavored to effect an amicable settlement, telling his late patron that the work done for him was first-class in every detail, and fully equal to that of any expert anywhere.

where. He asserted that it was not merely a matter of ten dollars, but a matter of principle, backed by pride in the profession, as a failure to push the claim would be a virtual admission that the work was not up to date and that the charge for the same was extravagant.

The defendant still remained obstinate and refused payment of the balance of the account, and Dr. Little was unwillingly forced to enter suit before a magistrate.

The case came up last night before Esquire Rose, and the defendant placed three expert dentists on the stand in defense of his case, three men of experience, thoroughly conversant with the latest and best approved methods of the most modern schools of dentistry.

And here was where the defendant made a mistake and met his Waterloo, as the three experts, under the closest and most careful examination, testified that the bridge work in question was executed in the most skillful manner, and that it was really a credit to the artist who had produced it.

Of course there was but one thing for the court to do under the circumstances, and that was to render his verdict in favor of the plaintiff. Dr. Little, in speaking of the verdict, said:

"I hate legal quibbling. I hate to sue a patron, under any circumstances. I was compelled, from the standpoint of professional pride, to prosecute this case, as failure to do so would have been used against me in my profession. My enemies would have claimed that my work would not stand the test of critical inspection at the hands of experts. Of course I am pleased with the verdict."

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE.

Two Men Had Eyes Blown Out—Another Injured.

Trimble, O., Dec. 11.—A terrific explosion occurred near Job's mine, where three men were attempting to thaw the explosive over a fire. The country for miles around was shaken. The injured:

John Moody and Dow Lefever, both eyes blown out.
Charles Karns, badly cut and injured internally.

Accused of Murder In Pittsburg.

Took His Last Cent For a Drink.

The old soak, in his tattered, patched coat, shuffled up to the bar, where he had drained off so many drinks, and looked wistfully at the bottles of red liquor in a row about two arms' length away.

"Say, Jim, old boy," he said to the bartender in the most winning tone he could muster, "you wouldn't take a man's last cent for a drink, would ye?"

"You bet your life I would!" snapped Jim, with the viciousness of a steel trap. Jim suspected an effort to get a drink on tick and proposed to forestall it.

"Well, I s'pose I got to have her, set her out," and the soak heaved up a great sigh that shook his frame with emotion.

Jim heaved a much lighter weight sigh on discovering that the drink was to be paid for. He set out the bottle of the roughest goods he had in the house. The unwelcome customer poured out four fingers and drank it down with evident relish. Wiping his mouth on his coat sleeve, he reached into his pocket, and, pulling out one old, tarnished cent that he had found on the sidewalk, he slapped it on the counter. "There you are, Jim!" he gurgled.

"What's this?" yelled Jim in loud, strident tones.

"You said you'd take me last cent for a drink, and there it is."

Jim reached under the bar for a baseball bat which he always had on tap, but before he could get it out the artful soak had disappeared through the front door.—Chicago Chronicle.

OUR BOARD OF HEALTH.

Its Policy And Practice is the Subject of Much Criticism.

Editor News Review—I wish to criticize or to take exceptions to a certain policy or practice of our board of health or of its police official in the matter of quarantining or even placarding a private residence on account of measles. Assuming their action is never arbitrary, I believe it to be impolitic, unusual and uncalled for. Many prominent sanitary officials and medical authorities encourage and advocate the actual exposure of children over two and under fifteen to this disease, for the same reason we vaccinate or substitute cowpox for smallpox. Observations and experience, confirmed by statistics, show that this disease among children is comparatively mild, and that the mortality is one-fourth less than among adults.

So that it seems wise to forestall the measles of adults, always a dangerous affection and involving the subject in many incidental complications and annoyances, by substituting the measles of childhood so much less troublesome and dangerous, and where the child is under the home roof and can receive the fostering care of parents.

Much stronger reasons can be given for quarantining against whooping cough than against measles. Medical statistics show again that a larger percent of deaths among children result from the former than from the latter disease. It is too a most tedious and vexatious disease, lasting weeks and even months, and often accompanied, physicians tell us, by pneumonia or lung fever, bronchitis, pleurisy and other disorders. And then adult life is practically exempt from it, and when it is acquired the complications and mortality are very small. The logical conclusion is, and that is accepted by the best authorities, keep the children from whooping cough and let them have the measles. Our board of health, however, or its police official, seem to reverse the authorities and the more common practice, and quarantine against measles and let the whooping cough go scot free.

A case in question known to the writer, and which suggested this article, occurred a day or two ago. Our efficient sanitary police officer passed the very door and ignored a case of whooping cough on a business street and went out into an isolated district and put up a big measles card, where it still remains and where but few, aside from the occupants of the house, are likely ever to see it.

The writer would beg leave to call the attention of those interested to a popular article on this subject in the November number of "Good Housekeeping," by Dr. C. F. Wahrer, an eminent writer and authority on medical subjects, in support of his views here submitted.

Yours very truly,
AN EAST ENDER.

CARTER LOST APPEAL.

Court Decides He Must Serve His Term.

HABEAS CORPUS WRIT REFUSED.

Judge Thayer Sustained Ruling of Trial Courts and Subsequent Action of President McKinley—Prisoner Remanded to Warden's Custody.

St. Louis, Dec. 11.—In a decision handed down by Judge Hook, of the Federal district court of Kansas, and concurred in by United States Circuit Judge Amos Thayer, Oberlin M. Carter, former captain United States army, under sentence of five years' imprisonment for misappropriation of government funds while in charge of the harbor work of Savannah, is remanded to the custody of Robert W. McLaughry, warden of the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, where Carter has been confined.

The court overruled the petitioner's demurrer on the habeas corpus writ issued some time ago, and sustained the ruling of the trial courts, together with the subsequent action of President McKinley, who set aside 12 of the charges under which he was convicted, but made no change of the sentence imposed by the court martial.

She Was Actively Interested In Many Charities—Church Built Through Her Efforts.

Philadelphia, Dec. 11.—The funeral of Mary Deborah Biddle, sister of Prof. Spencer F. Baird, of the Smithsonian institute, widow of the late Colonel Henry J. Biddle, who died suddenly last Monday at her country home in Edgewood, Chester county, Pa., took place.

She married her cousin, Colonel Biddle, who died from wounds received at the battle of New Market cross roads in 1862. Mrs. Biddle was actively interested in many charities. She was a manager of the Philadelphia Orphan asylum, the Presbyterian hospital, the Society to Protect Children from Cruelty, and was connected with many other institutions of a like nature. She was also a member of the Colonial Dames, the City Parks and Forestry associations and the Acorn club. In Carlisle she founded the Lydia Beard home for old ladies and the Carlisle mission, a memorial chapel to her son, Lieutenant J. W. Biddle, of the Seventh United States cavalry. She endowed the Biddle university for the education of colored clergymen at Charlotte, N. C., immediately after the Civil War. The Presbyterian church at Dilworthtown, Pa., was built through Mrs. Biddle's efforts. Four sons survive her.

A DIVIDEND WAS DECLARED.

Directors of American Steel and Wire Met—Slecken Resigned.

New York, Dec. 11.—The directors of the American Steel and Wire company declared a dividend on the preferred stock of 1 1/4 per cent, payable Jan. 20, 1901, and directed the payment of the quarterly dividend of 1 1/4 per cent on the common stock as declared at the beginning of the year.

The board also accepted the resignation of Herman Slecken as a director, leaving his place vacant.

So far as could be learned there was no action taken at the meeting regarding the purchase of the American steamship line.

DEFENDANTS TO PAY COSTS.

A Nolle Prosequi Entered In Pennsylvania Legislative Bribery Cases.

Harrisburg, Dec. 11.—The remaining bribery, perjury and conspiracy cases of the last session of the Pennsylvania state legislature on which true bills were found by a grand jury of Dauphin county, came to a close, when District Attorney Miller entered a nolle prosequi. This was entered on the agreement of the defendants to pay the costs, which amounted to about $2,000.

The only case heard was that against John J. Coyle, who was acquitted and ordered to pay half the costs. The others against whom true bills were found were Michael J. Costello, Frank B. Jones, Robert Evans, Charles R. Spatz, Thomas M. Moyle and Monroe H. Kulp.

ELIJAH W. HILL,

Real Estate Dealer,

Second Floor Grand Building, Corner Sixth and Washington,
EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

DO YOU WISH TO BUY OR SELL REAL ESTATE? If so, consult us.

We have the facilities for accommodating you. Having made real estate dealing a specialty for some time, we have become established in the business. Every day brings us new business and nearly every day sees a deal consummated. Our volume of business grows out of the reasonableness of our charges. We never speculate on other peoples' property. The price set by the owner is the price the purchaser pays. We do not conduct our business on the "get rich quick" plan. Our patrons appreciate this and show it by sending us other patrons. Owners of property who desire to sell the same will do well to place it on our sale list. Those intending to purchase property will do well to consult us before buying.

In all of our business we take care of the interests of both owner and purchaser. We are neither for the one or the other. Justice between both parties is what we seek.

Owners who want a quick sale and will offer a genuine bargain can be accommodated at all times by us. Purchasers, who want a bargain, can take advantage of these offers if they will let us know that they are in the market for such.

Those who have but little money, say from $50 to $100, can buy a home from us at any time, the balance being paid on installments at the rate of $1 monthly to the $100 of indebtedness, which pays both interest and principal, with privilege of paying faster. The large assortment of properties we have constantly on sale enables us to usually suit you.

DO YOU WISH FIRE INSURANCE? This is another branch of our business. We represent ten different companies, all of high standard. We insure dwellings, barns, mercantile buildings, factories, merchandise, household goods, etc. We write at regular rates. We think it unfair to give what is known as "cut rates." As a basis for dwelling rates, we would say that a frame, slate roof building which stands unexposed by other buildings for the space of 25 feet on all sides, will cost you 35 cents per $100 insurance for one year; 70 cents per $100 for three years; or, $1 per $100 for five years. This applies to household goods as well. Household goods are just as valuable, proportionately to you as the house is to its owner, and we often wonder why so many owners of household goods let themselves be exposed to loss, and often lose them when insurance rates are so reasonable.

BONDS, STOCKS AND INVESTMENTS we also handle. We can sell you local stocks, bonds and investments, and also corporation, bank and railroad stocks and bonds. Not much business in this line has developed here yet, but by your co-operation with us, either as a buyer or seller, will be all that is necessary to develop such.

HOUSE RENTING as a business is what East Liverpool has needed for some time. In our renting department, you find such and every day is adding to its utility. If you have any properties to rent place them with us and see if it does not profit you.

All kinds of notarial work executed, such as acknowledgements, writing of wills, deeds, mortgages, contracts and agreements. We also procure marriage licenses.

Loaning of money on real estate is another feature of our business. We negotiate loans for a reasonable charge, the rate of interest depending on the class of security and amount wanted. Those who have money to put out should avail themselves of our facilities for doing this kind of business. No charges to the lender.

To the public we extend free of charge our services in the way of supplying information of a general nature concerning our city and vicinity. We try to have at all times just what you want to know.

We open this week a free bureau for the accommodation of those who are seeking houses to rent and landlords who are seeking tenants. We are constantly besieged with applications for houses for rent. To this end we invite all owners of rentable houses in the city or vicinity to let us know when they want or will want a tenant. If they will do so we will refer inquirers to them, making no charge whatever, either to applicant or owner. Landlords by doing this need never have a house empty for more than a day.

In the above we have endeavored to give you the general nature of the business in which we engage. We ask but a continuance of the patronage of the past, and, as then, we will endeavor to render you honest, accurate and valuable service.

FAVOR AN INCOME TAX

Democrats Advocate Such a Provision,

THE WAR REDUCTION TOO LOW.

Minority Members of the Ways and Means Say It Should Be Cut $70,000,000—Burdensome on Beer and Tobacco Interests—Blame Monopolies on Tariff.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The views of the minority members of the ways and means committee on the bill reducing war revenue axes about $40,000,000 was completed and made public. It is signed by the entire Democratic membership of the committee—Messrs. Richardson, of Tennessee; Swanson, of Virginia; McClellan, of New York; Newlands, of Nevada; Cooper, of Texas, and Underwood, of Alabama.

The report says that the minority are of opinion that the proposed reduction of revenue is too small and that the bill does not go far enough in relieving the people of the burdens imposed upon them for war purposes. The remaining taxes, says the report, are unnecessary and should be removed.

The minority takes issue with Secretary Gage's estimate of $26,000,000 surplus in 1902, and says that if congress observes proper economy in expenditures the surplus ought to be $109,000,000.

"Instead of taking off the sum of $40,000,000, as is proposed, we would go further and reduce taxation not less than $70,000,000.

"We believe that by a return to proper economy in appropriations a reduction greater than we advocate could be made, and we should at once enforce this economy. The war being over the war taxes should cease, and the 'train of extraordinary expenditures' following the war should also terminate.

"We shall not, however, oppose the passage of the bill, for it gives some relief, but will endeavor to properly amend it.

"It has been proved beyond question by evidence before the industrial commission appointed by congress, that many of the powerful trusts that have an absolute monopoly of their business in this country and that exercise their power despotically and injuriously to the people largely owe their growth to the customs duties imposed in the Dingley tariff law, which prohibits foreign competition.

"By destroying in many cases all foreign competition this bill has made possible home combination with all of the evils of monopoly. We witness daily the gross injustice of these monopolies, created and fostered by the government, selling goods as they continually do to foreign consumers out of the same factory at a lower price than they sell the same goods to home consumers.

"We urgently insist that the present tariff laws should be modified so as to prevent this imposition upon our own citizens.

"We believe that a provision could and should be prepared which would accomplish the just ends sought in an income tax, yet escape an adverse decision of the supreme court of the United States such as was rendered against the income tax provided for in the Wilson law."

The report says that a reduction of $70,000,000 in taxation would permit the relief of the tobacco and beer producing interests, which have suffered from heavy war taxes and would enable the abolition of many vexatious and unnecessary taxes that will be continued under the proposed legislation.

FAVORS THE BOUTELLE BILL.

Long Thinks His Services Deserve the Reward Proposed.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Secretary Long has written to Chairman Foss, of the house naval committee, relative to the proposed retiring of Representative Boutelle, of Maine, as a captain of the navy, in the course of which he said in part:

"If the reward proposed in the resolution, that is, the placing of a person not at the time on the active list of the navy upon the retired list can ever be appropriate, it would appear to be so in the present case. Mr. Boutelle served with distinction as an officer of the navy during the critical period of the Civil War. During his service as chairman of the committee on naval affairs his experience as a naval officer and extensive acquaintance with naval matters proved of great value in the upbuilding of the navy to which he unflinchingly devoted his energies and abilities."

ties."

The secretary further along said: "In view of the precedents above given and others which might be cited, and in consideration of the exceptional features of the case, the department makes no objection to the legislation proposed by the joint resolution in question."

Appropriation Bill Passed House.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The first of the great supply bills, the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, was passed by the house in record time. The bill carries $24,496,308 and has 131 pages, but there was less than 10 minutes' debate upon it. Mr. Bingham, of Pennsylvania, who was in charge of the measure, tendered his thanks to the house for the confidence shown in the appropriation committee. It required about three hours for the clerk to read the bill.

Towne Was Worn In.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Hon. Charles A. Towne, the recently appointed successor to the late Senator Davis, of Minnesota, attended the session of the senate and took the oath of office. No business of importance was transacted in open session, the senate going into secret session on the Hay-Pauncefote treaty as soon as routine business had been concluded.

NO BENEFIT TO KRUGER.

German Chancellor Pointed Out Futility of Overtures—Tried to Prevent South African War.

Berlin, Dec. 11.—The imperial chancellor, Count Von Buelow, replying in the reichstag to a question on the subject of Mr. Kruger's failure to be received by Emperor William, said the government did all in its power to ward off war and left the two republics in no doubt as to the state of affairs in Europe and as to the German neutrality. When in 1899 the question of arbitration seemed not altogether excluded the government recommended it to Mr. Kruger. He thought the time had not yet come. Mr. Kruger later sought intervention, but his feelings were too highly inflamed for the Dutch and German governments. For the German government it was lost time to give advice. Germany was convinced that any step of a great power at that time would be critical and would have led to no result. "There was no use for us," said the chancellor, "to pinch our fingers between the door and the hinge." The chancellor added that when the suggestion of mediation was made to Great Britain by the United States in a quite gently worded inquiry it was rejected officially and categorically. Intervention might have led to war.

The chancellor described the reply of M. Delcasse, the French minister of foreign affairs, to Mr. Kruger as "France will in no case take the initiative, but would not oppose it when certain eventualities became known, provided they are calculated to serve French interests."

The chancellor thereupon remarked that he could not have dealt with the situation better himself. Overtures to Mr. Kruger in Germany, he pointed out, would have displaced national relations and served no purpose of Mr. Kruger or of Germany.

TWO DIVORCES WERE GRANTED

Parties Live In Wellsville and One Woman Said She Supported Herself While

HER HUSBAND MADE $3 A DAY

The Other Told a Story of Very Extreme Cruelty to the Court.

HER HUSBAND BROKE DISHES

Lisbon, Dec. 11.—(Special.)—Mrs. Susan Given, of Wellsville, was granted a divorce in court last evening from Charles S. Given, together with the custody of their minor child.

The Givens were married 16 years ago in Steubenville, and Mrs. Given claimed that by the idleness and dissipation of the defendant, she was compelled to support herself and child. Given is a railroad engineer earning $3 per day.

Mrs. Sarah M. Smith, of Wellsville, who was six years ago married to James D. Smith, told a story of extreme cruelty to the court in support of her allegation for a divorce. The Smiths for a number of years lived in Toronto. She told a story of abuse on his part when he knocked her down and struck her with his fists. Last January Mrs. Smith gave birth to her last child, and at this time her husband refused to procure for her any medical aid. When the child was born it was so deformed that its life was short, and the witness stated on the stand that the attending physician had informed the family that the abusive treatment of Smith was responsible for the deformity and death of the infant. Mrs. Smith went to Empire on Easter to visit her parents and when she returned found her home deserted and her husband gone, together with the eldest child, a son of five years. She claimed that he broke all of her furniture and dishes before leaving.

Judge Hole gave her a divorce and the custody of their three-year-old daughter, while the son was allowed to remain with the husband.

TO SAVE THE MASSES.

Churches to Be Awakened to Sad Conditions.

A BIG RELIGIOUS MOVEMENT.

Conference in New York—Plans For Extending Work to Entire Country Formed. Committees Appointed—Ball Temporary Chairman.

New York, Dec. 11.—A conference was held at the Young Men's Christian association, attended by clergy-men and business men from New York and nearby large cities, for the purpose of planning for a big religious movement, founded upon the evangelical basis. It was the outcome of a general feeling shared by clergy and laymen interested in evangelical work that the "churches should be awakened to the existing conditions of lethargy and indifference on the part of the great masses toward the word of God."

Plans for extending the movement to the entire country were perfected and committees appointed to facilitate them. William P. Hall was chosen temporary chairman of the conference. He was associated with the late Dwight L. Moody.

The headquarters of the movement will probably be in New York city, although this is not definitely decided. This question will be left to the central committee, which held a meeting after the conference. It was decided to prepare a circular outlining the scheme sent to the secretaries of church societies in every city and town in the United States.

Other resolutions were also considered and some adopted.

TO WIPE OUT POLYGAMY.

Congressman Ray Favors Constitutional Amendment—Also Uniform Laws For Marriage and Divorce.

Washington, Dec. 11.—In view of the movement for the supervision of polygamy and for uniform marriage and divorce laws, Chairman Ray, of the house committee on the judiciary, having charge of this legislation, has written a letter to those interested in the movement, saying in part:

"An amendment to the constitution merely prohibiting polygamy would amount to but little. An amendment allowing congress to pass laws punishing polygamy would apply to those localities where polygamy is practiced, that is, it would enable congress to pass laws prohibiting and punishing polygamy in Utah and one or two other localities where it is practiced, and allow prosecutions in the United States courts. Every state in the union has full power to prohibit and punish polygamy and every state has anti-polygamy laws. Utah has such a law. The main trouble is in the enforcement of it and gentlemen, including judges, who have appeared before this committee in favor of the proposed amendment, state that the main object is to give the United States courts jurisdiction and thus secure a better enforcement of the anti-polygamy laws. A very large number of our people, and many senators and representatives, feel that such an amendment is unnecessary, and I do not know what the fate of the proposition will be, but to the best of my ability I shall press a proposed amendment giving congress full power to enact uniform laws on the subject of marriage and divorce. I think that the laws of marriage ought to be uniform throughout the nation, and that the divorce laws ought to be uniform."

More Net Gains Than Losses—Movements In Some Stocks Call Money Minimum—Not Advance.

New York, Dec. 11.—The effect of the doubtful outlook in the money market was clear Monday in the small volume of business in stocks. The money market showed no sign of stringency and no liquidation was precipitated. In fact, the buying overbore the selling and there were more net gains than losses as a result of the day's operations. The buying seemed to come from uncovered shorts, judging from the fact that those stocks which have suffered most from recent depression were in foremost demand Monday. This was notably true of the steel group, led by Tennessee Coal, which has been the object of a prolonged raid by the bears, at an expense of 20 points in the value of the stock. A rally of 4½ points at the extreme high point Monday therefore seems moderate. Other members of the steel group moved in sympathy and gained upwards of a point all around, with the exception of Steel and Wire. The latter stock was under pressure. While it recovered at one time to above Saturday's level it closed weak and effected the whole group. Meetings of the directors both of the Tennessee Coal company and the Steel and Wire company were watched for developments, but there were none of importance so far as the public was informed. No action was taken on the dividend by the Tennessee company to refute the recent rumors that it would be passed. The Steel and Wire directors ordered the payment of the last installment of the year's dividend declared last year. The strength of Sugar was attributed to reports of an over-sold condition in the trade indicated in an advance in the selling price of refined sugars by the independent refiners. Other industrial stocks showed sharp recoveries, with no news to explain the movement, beyond the obvious fact that they have been recently sold short by professional operators. The movement in the railroad list seemed to be due to the same cause, but was much narrower. There was no evidence of the large organized buying at any point, such as has been an occasional feature of the market for some time past. The Erie stocks were much less active, although the first preferred and second preferred were at one time advanced 1½ and 1¾ respectively. The Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis stocks rose 3¼ each on a light demand, which, however, brought out very little stock. The minimum rate for call money was advanced to 5 per cent and ruled from that to 6 per cent.

REV. STUART GOES FREE.

Prosecution Admitted That No Murder Case Could Be Made Out Against Him.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 11.—Rev. D. E. Stuart, the Baptist minister of Wyoming, this county, who was discharged by Judge Woodward last week on habeas corpus proceedings following the death of his wife under suspicious circumstances, and who was immediately re-arrested on complaint of his wife's father, was again discharged from custody. James Harris, Mrs. Stuart's father, swore out a warrant charging Mr. Stuart with being responsible for the death of Mrs. Stuart.

Drs. Beckwith and Whitney testified that there were no evidences of a criminal operation. Dr. Whitney who made the post mortem examination, testified that there were traces of carbolic acid poisoning in the woman's mouth and throat and that death was due to that cause.

Mrs. John Johns, with whom Minister Stuart and his wife boarded in Plymouth, said Stuart called to the household that his wife had taken something. He told Mrs. Johns to prepare an antidote quick. This was done and the clergyman did all in his power to make his wife swallow, but she was unconscious, and the antidote could not be administered. She died in a few minutes.

Mrs. Evan Griffiths and other neighbors testified to Rev. Stuart's kindness to his wife. At this point P. M. Thornton, who represented the prosecution, said it was plain that no case could be made against the defendant, and he asked for his dismissal, which was done.

The minister was then heartily congratulated by his friends.

I was in business in Baltimore and had rheumatism for three months; couldn't walk at all. I tried the best doctors I could get, but they did me no good. I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it cured me sound. I came home to Sharpsburg, and there were three cases of different diseases. I advised the patients to use Dr. Pierce's medicines, which they did, and all were cured."

DESIRABLE HOUSES.

The Southside Land Company Has Decided to Meet a Long Felt Want.

The Southside Land company has decided to open their fine new houses to approved renters. These houses embrace four, five and six-roomed dwellings, and are the very class of residences which are in great demand. Desirable parties can have them; and the renters will call themselves very lucky, as the buildings cannot be equalled in all this section.

WE MUST REPEAT

When Everybody in East Liverpool Tells the Same Story.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders and the troubles of those whose urinary organism is wrong in its action. That they do this is so easy to prove that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case: Mr. P. J. Green, veterinary surgeon, says: "When attending a sick horse belonging to Mr. G. H. Gardner, of 168 Jackson street, he remarked to me that the horse seemed to be in pain. I replied that I was the sicker of the two, as I could at that time scarcely straighten up with my back from lameness, weakness and severe pains. He asked me what my symptoms were and I explained to him that I had suffered for a number of years from my kidneys, that I had attacks at times when nothing helped me, and it was agony to get around, but that I could not endure idleness. The secretions from the kidneys were very high colored and aciduous; that I had spells of dizziness when I could see black specks floating before my eyes and felt generally broken up. He looked up and said he had the very thing I needed to cure me in his house—Doan's Kidney Pills. He went into the house and brought me eight pills. I took them with me and I used them two at a dose. The effect was astonishing. I felt it almost at once and went to the W. & W. pharmacy and bought a box and took them. The encouragement held out to me by the first eight pills was not mythical, as by their continued use the improvement continued, and I consider no expression of praise too strong for Doan's Kidney Pills, in short they are ne plus ultra."
